

Harvey York's Rise To Power Chapter 3821 - 3830

Chapter 3821

“Aaagh!”

Along with the screams of pain, the man was sent flying before he slammed into the edge of the cabin. He could not even stand back up as he covered his face at that moment.

The crowd was completely shocked.

‘How dare a man from Country H even do this to a man from the South Sea?’

‘He’s lawless!’

“Don’t you know that peace is the most important thing when you’re in a foreign country?”

“Don’t you know that you people need to pay your respects to the people here? We won’t make it any harder on you if you just pay a small tip when you’re coming and leaving here!”

“It sure looks like you’re standing up for yourself, but you’re actually dooming every single citizen of Country H!”

“No matter what reason you have, you’re committing a crime for assaulting someone in South Sea’s airspace!”

“Apologize! Apologize this instance!”

A few men in suits started yelling at Harvey while pointing at his nose.

A few women quickly lifted the man on the floor with pitiful looks on their faces.

At the same time, they were glaring at Harvey angrily.

‘How dare this man even lay his hands on a mighty citizen of the South Sea?!’

‘Doesn’t he know that everyone from Country H is despised by the citizens here?!’

‘How dare he hit someone now?! He must have a death wish or something!’

“He stole my wallet before he started acting all high and mighty in front of me. How am I in the wrong for hitting him?” reasoned Harvey calmly.

A bald man in a suit coldly chuckled.

“We didn’t see that happen, but we did see you slapping that man aside! You’re completely lawless!”

A beautiful woman scoffed.

“Don’t you know just how rich and powerful the South Sea actually is?! You rich people from Country H just love taking vacations here!

“Do you really think a country like this has thieves?”

“You must be too used to your own country, kid! You don’t even know what the outside world looks like!” exclaimed the others disdainfully.

“You should know that your authority and influence in Country H has no damn use whatsoever in the South Sea!”

“Don’t think you’re on the same level as us just because you’re sitting in the VIP cabin!”

“In our eyes, citizens of Country H are just trash!”

“You stupid people are just funneling money right into our country!”

“Bunch of idiots!”

Harvey shook his head. He could not stand the ignorant people flaunting their nationality.

He calmly pushed the crowd aside before grabbing his wallet from the man’s pocket.

At the same time, he opened up his wallet and found his credentials.

Any sane person could tell that the man was clearly a thief!

The crowd froze instantly.

The citizens of the South Sea felt extremely awkward. Their faces were all bright red at this time.

“So what?!” exclaimed a beautiful woman.

“Even if we took something from you by mistake, you should feel honored!

“Besides, the South Sea is different compared to Country H! We’re in a law-abiding society!

“Even if our people were to do something wrong, you still shouldn’t just hit someone like that!

“You think a country bumpkin like you can do whatever you please here?!

“Let me tell you something! You should apologize to this man right here, or you won’t hear the end of this!”

A group of people started to distort the truth while blatantly insulting Harvey.

The thief also let out a cold scoff as he looked at Harvey.

Naturally, similar incidents had already happened quite a few times.

He would always be at an advantage in the South Sea.

This was his only reason for being this arrogant.

Chapter 3822

“Do you want me to apologize to this clown? Are you kidding me?”

Harvey York glared derisively at the crowd.

“How dare you?!”

A woman with exquisite makeup walked out before glaring at Harvey with a bossy look.

“Not only did you assault this man, you even insulted us noble people from the South Sea!

“If you don’t give us a fair statement right now, you’ll be in big trouble!”

“Do you want a statement?”

Harvey showed an indifferent expression.

“Who do you think you are? You think you can just ask for a statement this?”

“You didn’t give your wallet to us noble people! You beat up one of our people and slandered everyone here! You’re obviously in big trouble right now!ong

The beautiful woman took a step forward with a furious expression.

“Kneel and apologize!”

Harvey squinted at the woman before coldly exclaiming, “And what if I refuse?”

“Refuse?”

“If you refuse, we’ll get you locked up by the airport police for three whole days! You won’t even get a chance to get inside South Sea!

“This is what you get if you go against us!”

The woman stepped forward dominantly while squinting, as if she was a proud little peacock.

“Let me tell you something! Even if you sit in the VIP cabin appropriately dressed, you’re still nothing in my eyes!

“I’m counting to three! If you don’t kneel after that, I’ll slap you to death myself! “I’m counting to three! If you don’t kneel after

“One! Two! Three!”

When the woman saw Harvey standing still after the countdown, she furiously walked forward before swinging her palm toward Harvey’s face.

Slap!

Along with the sound of a loud slap,

back of his palm.

“How dare you, you instantly slapped the woman to the ground with the

A few people who saw the sight immediately rolled their sleeves up, wanting to teach Harvey a lesson.

Harvey did not hold back at all. He instantly sent the incoming people flying before they slammed into the wall.

The others were completely sluggish when they saw the sight.

They were already used to their own people flaunting their strength and taking advantage of others...

But it was their first time seeing such a ruthless man like Harvey. They had no idea what to do against him at this moment.

Slap!

Harvey took a step forward before he kicked the thief aside.

“Who’s going to tell me that I’m in trouble now?”

“You’re finished, you b*stard! You’re done for!” exclaimed a few people while covering their faces.

“We’re calling the cops! You’ll be stuck behind bars for the rest of your life!”

“You’ll also pay a hefty price for this!”

“You’ll regret everything because of this!”

Slap!

Harvey slapped the person who spoke up before showing a calm smile.

“I’m sorry, according to international airspace laws, we’re still in Country H territory before the plane lands.

“We have the right to decide what happens in our land.

“The laws of your country don’t apply here.

“Seems like there’s no need for me to pay the price, after all.”

Harvey calmly pulled out some tissue before he started wiping his fingers.

A few people gritted their teeth with horrible expressions. They knew that Harvey was telling the truth.

Even if they were to report the incident to the police later, their laws would not be applicable toward Harvey,

Chapter 3823

Half an hour later, the plane safely landed at the Blackburn City International Airport.

Harvey York and the others seated in first-class seats got out of the plane as soon as possible. There was also a shuttle bus assigned to pick up the people.

The people who were slapped around by Harvey instantly got on the shuttle bus. The thief took out his phone and fearlessly took a few pictures of Harvey before coldly chuckling.

Ten minutes later, the shuttle bus came to the immigration checkpoint outside the waiting hall.

“You! Stop right there!”

Hundreds of passengers were being inspected before they were let go...

But when it was Harvey’s turn, a person in uniform instantly stopped him.

She sized up Harvey with a judgmental gaze before showing utter disdain.

Not far away, the thief cracked a cold smirk.

According to international airspace laws, the South Sea had no right to pursue Harvey for what happened in the air...

But they did have ways to deal with him anyway.

A few towering security guards called Harvey to the quarantine area to be re-inspected.

Harvey seemed indifferent when many passengers showed him cold smirks while running their thumbs across their throats.

They obviously knew that Harvey was inspected because of what had happened on the plane before.

‘How dare he still act all high and mighty in another country? Serves him right!’

“Unlock your phone. We need to see if there’s any prohibited content.”

A few security guards completely tore up Harvey's luggage while they searched his body before asking for his phone.

Harvey looked curious when he saw the woman in front with similar features to the thief before.

"You need to give us your phone password, or we'll have to send you back to your country!" exclaimed the security guard after seeing Harvey refusing to unlock his phone while showing a calm look.

Harvey glanced at the security guard's chest before he saw a nametag labeled 'Daphne Lee'.

"You want me to give me my phone password?"

"Or else you'll deport me?"

Harvey calmly let out a chuckle.

"I'm afraid you don't have the right to that."

"I suggest you call the person with the highest authority here before you regret it."

Harvey casually pulled a chair before he calmly sat down.

Daphne and the others frowned before they disdainfully glared at Harvey.

'Where did this country bumpkin even get the courage from?'

'He wants us to call the person with the highest authority here?'

'Who does he think he is?'

The security guards had seen many so-called tycoons from Country H showing off in the South Sea, but they had no choice but to behave after a good beating anyway.

They believed the man before them was too used to that rundown place to the point where he was this ignorant.

Daphne coldly chuckled.

"Harvey, right?"

"I don't care who you are."

"I also don't care what identity you have."

“But let me tell you something! The tricks you pull in Country H are completely useless here!

“Just tell me if you want anything! I can call the shots!”

Chapter 3824

Another woman let out a cold chuckle.

“Don’t you dare say you’re the young master of some big company or the son of some first-in- command.

“Titles like that are completely useless here!

“Let me warn you something! You better cooperate and give us your password already!

“We need to inspect your phone for prohibited documents!

“If not, we’ll lock you up for forty-eight hours before deporting you back!

“We’re not responsible for what happens during that period!”

After hearing those words, the other workers and security guards were showing playful looks.

Naturally, they had already threatened many so-called young masters and princes with the same trick.

No matter how much of a show-off they were, they had no choice but to give in.

Some even offered the security guards their cash, watches, and jewelry away without hesitation.

If that were not the case, they would have been sent to the airport police.

“Fine. Since you want to be in charge, I’ll give you a chance,” said Harvey calmly.

“Give me your phone. I’m going to call someone.”

“Oh? Are you calling for help?

“How impressive!

Daphne scoffed.

“Which prominent figure from Wolsing do you think you can call right now?

“Let me tell you something! Even the Big Boss himself won’t be able to help you!”

The workers and security guards burst out laughing after hearing those words.

The people who chimed in to watch the show felt extremely prideful when they showed playful and disdainful expressions in front of Harvey.

Safe to say that in their eyes, Harvey meant nothing to them anyway!

Daphne threw Harvey a phone with a playful look on her face.

“Here! Call someone!

“If the person can actually get you out of the situation, we’ll kneel and call you ‘Daddy’!”

The crowd started laughing louder. They wanted to see how Harvey was planning to continue showing off.

After thinking about the situation for a moment, Harvey called a number from the South Sea before turning on the speaker.

Soon after, a busy tone was heard.

“Hello, the number you called is not recognized...”

Daphne and the others stood frozen before they burst out laughing.

‘He’s using an unrecognized number to show off?’

‘What a joke!’

Harvey froze before adding two numbers representing the country’s call code and made the call again.

A respectful tone could be heard on the other side of the phone.

“What orders do you have for me, Sir York?”

The person was none other than the representative of the South Sea Martial Arts Alliance, Gordon Moreno himself.

After being disrespected by Harvey in Flutwell, he felt extremely fearful when he got his call. He figured the ruthless demon was about to demand something out of hand again.

“It’s nothing. I just arrived at Blackburn City for business but got stopped at the airport.

“I’d like you to do me a little favor...”

“Or I won’t be able to leave this place alive!”

After hearing Harvey’s playful tone, Gordon wanted to slam his head to the ground so badly.

He did not know why Harvey wanted to go to Blackburn City, but he knew it would be terrible if the people at the airport were to go against him.

“Give me three minutes. I’ll handle this,” exclaimed Gordon decisively.

Chapter 3825

Harvey York calmly hung up the phone before putting three fingers up in front of Daphne Lee, telling her he only needed three minutes.

“Three minutes?”

Daphne scoffed after seeing Harvey’s movements.

“Do you think you can show off just because you have someone putting up a show with you?!”

“It’s useless!”

“We’ve seen country bumpkins like you before! We won’t be tricked by such lame party tricks!”

“If you’re that confident, we should just wait it out,” replied Harvey calmly.

“Fine! I’ll wait!”

“If you can’t get out of the situation by then, I’ll deal with you myself!”

Daphne crossed her hands while looking at Harvey with her nose.

Harvey casually played with his phone when he saw news of Country H’s Martial Arts Alliance being the new great director of the World Martial Arts Alliance.

Three minutes had passed, but nothing had changed.

Daphne showed a disdainful look when she looked at her Cartier watch, that no one knew where she got it from.

“Time’s up, country bumpkin. You’re out of luck.”

“Let me tell you something! I’ll send you to the airport police right now! I’ll teach you a lesson you’ll never forget...”

Frantic footsteps could be heard from afar.

A middle-aged man in a suit with a pot belly jogged over while he kept panting.

Dozens of people who seemed like higher-ups followed behind him with anxious expressions on their faces.

Daphne froze before she stepped forward with a warm smile.

“CEO Lee! What brings you here?”

“Is there something wrong?”

The man completely ignored Daphne before he looked around the place. When he saw Harvey calmly sitting on his chair, he quickly ran over before he put his hands to the side.

“You must be Sir York!”

Harvey nodded.

CEO Lee saw the messy luggage and Harvey’s faint smile before cold sweats started dripping down his back.

After remembering that a higher-up of the South Sea Martial Arts Alliance called, his mouth just could not stop twitching.

“Please forgive my subordinates for acting so recklessly!”

Daphne and the others twitched their eyes. They were filled with utter disbelief at this moment.

They did not expect the airport’s CEO to be this respectful toward the country bumpkin when they could not even get close to the CEO in the first place!

CEO Lee belonged to one of the South Sea’s three great families!

Why would someone with such immense background even be scared of a man from Country H?

Not only was CEO Lee extremely respectful, but he also seemed quite terrified of Harvey!

‘Who is this man exactly?’

‘Did his call really make such a huge difference?’

‘He only needed three minutes to deal with this?!’

Without a second thought, Daphne and the others were frantically twitching their eyes.

“Reckless?”

“You want me to forgive them?” said Harvey calmly while playing with his phone.

“Country H and the South Sea are allies.

“I’m pretty sure you’ve generated at least a billion dollars a year from Country H just from your tourist revenue, right?”

“Yet this is how you treat us?”

“If it weren’t for me having connections, you would’ve already trampled all over me, wouldn’t you?”

Chapt

CEO Lee’s face darkened in an instant the moment he heard Harvey’s words.

When Harvey was done, he quickly replied with a respectful bow, “Don’t worry, Sir York.”

“I’ll give you a fair statement about this.”

“From today onward, I’ll make sure that any person from Country H will never be treated unfairly!”

Before Harvey could say anything, CEO Lee immediately started swinging his palm around.

His movements were ruthless yet accurate, slapping Daphne and the others around till their faces were completely swollen.

Bam!

CEO Lee then kicked Daphne to the ground, stomping on her exquisite face right after.

Daphne’s nose snapped in half; blood smeared her now hideous face. It was a miserable sight.

CEO Lee turned around and looked at Harvey respectfully.

“Sir York! Is this enough for you?”

“No.”

Harvey smiled, as calm as always.

“How are you going to deal with the thief using Blackburn City’s law?”

“I understand.”

CEO Lee nodded and waved his hand; many tall strong security guards immediately rushed toward the thief.

Under the crowd’s shocked gaze, Harvey calmly packed his belongings before leaving the place.

Ten minutes later, Harvey arrived at the airport’s exit.

He looked around the place, but he wouldn’t find Katy anywhere. Rather, a Porsche 718 was parked in the waiting area.

The driver was a young woman with a slender body and a beautiful face; she was wearing a pair of Chanel sunglasses while holding a sign that had Harvey’s name on it.

Her looks and actions were extremely eye-catching; everyone around was completely attracted by the sight.

A lot of men wanted to talk to her, but they couldn’t handle her dominant aura.

After seeing the woman, Harvey took out his phone and saw a text.

Katy told him that she needed to take care of her grandfather Dean and couldn’t leave his side. Thus, she had asked her good friend to pick Harvey up.

Harvey sighed before approaching the woman.

“Ellen Moreno?”

Ellen raised her head and frowned before sizing up Harvey.

“Are you Harvey York?” she asked in a South Sea accent.

“Are you the person Katy asked to come?” he asked.

“I heard you can save her grandfather,” she said.

“That’s me,” Harvey said, nodding.

“You just got here?”

“Do you know how long I’ve been waiting for you?”

Ellen glared at Harvey, peeved.

“My time is precious!”

She was a woman with high standards; she would naturally feel a little angry after waiting for a man for so long the entire morning.

Harvey flashed her an apologetic smile.

“I’m sorry for disturbing your rest.”

After seeing how polite Harvey was, Ellen froze for a brief while. Then, she smiled faintly. She thought Harvey was quite different compared to most men in the South Sea.

“Forget it. It’s nothing much, anyway.”

“I’m Katy’s friend. Her problems are my problems. I’m only here to fetch you, anyway.”

“Get in! I’ll take you to her. Hopefully, you’ll be able to get her grandfather back to normal.”

Ellen opened the door and gestured for Harvey to get inside. The car zoomed out of the airport at lightning speed, heading toward Blackburn City’s downtown area.

Half an hour later, it stopped in front of a villa with a distinct South Sea feel.

Chapter 3827

Security guards with loaded firearms were patrolling every single entrance.

After Ellen made a few phone calls, the guards raised the lever for the car to head inside.

The car arrived at the entrance of the main building. Katy had been waiting there for a while.

Katy walked forward with a smile on her face after the car was parked.

“Thank you for coming all this way, Sir York.”

“I’m sorry I had to call you here like this.”

Katy already knew about the four great Martial Arts Alliances pressuring Country H, along with all of Harvey’s efforts. She was filled with gratitude when Harvey came all the way here as soon as he could.

Harvey smiled.

“Enough with the formalities.”

“Didn’t Elder Cobb’s condition get worse? Let me go take a look.”

Katy frowned when Harvey mentioned the situation.

“To be honest with you, I invited a lot of famous families here for my grandfather.”

“Martial artists, well-known doctors, and people who are well-versed in witchcraft.”

“But right now, nobody managed to figure out a way to bring my grandfather back to normal.”

“You’re my only hope.”

Harvey nodded before walking inside.

Ellen looked at Harvey oddly; she didn’t believe that Harvey had anything remarkable to offer.

That said, she just pouted before heading inside the main hall with Katy.

“I tested Elder Cobb’s blood when he vomited; there were no toxins inside.”

“But judging from his physique, not only did the fracture on his scapula heal in time, it got even worse all of a sudden. This is pretty troublesome!”

“More importantly, Elder Cobb is also a God of War. He’s a strong man!”

“We can’t use any needles on him, and we can’t use any medicine either! This is really bad...”

Katy brought Harvey into the main hall before the surroundings lit up.

A tea set made out of Agarwood was placed in the hall, along with a lot of high-end medical equipment.

A projector was placed on the wall as well.

Many medical experts and martial artists were all sitting in their chairs.

Within the crowd, a few people who were as white as snow and dressed in peculiar outfits could be seen; they were the mysterious sorcerers from the South Sea.

These people all gathered together to investigate Dean’s crisis.

Their conversations weren’t as intense, but they all had stern looks on their faces.

Everyone started frowning; it was clear they couldn't do anything about Dean's condition.

Bodyguards and maids surrounded the main hall, silently providing the doctors and experts with everything they needed.

Harvey looked around him before spotting a young man in his twenties.

The man was wearing a white t-shirt; he was standing still while he crossed his arms, but his aura alone was enough to attract everyone's attention.

He had a handsome face and a sense of superiority. For some reason, Harvey felt like he had seen the man before.

Katy and Harvey's arrival instantly got everyone's attention.

The man in the white t-shirt's eyes lit up; he stared at Katy with a burning passion.

Chapter 3828

"Miss Cobb!"

The man in a white t-shirt went forward to greet Katy, and nodded at Ellen.

There was a slight fluctuation in his eyes when he shifted his gaze toward Harvey.

"Thank you, Young Master Padlow. Thank you, everyone."

Katy nodded at the crowd before turning to the man in the white t-shirt.

"This is the protege of the South Sea Martial Arts Alliance, Gael Padlow."

"He's pretty powerful and has a strong background as well."

Harvey nodded, not saying much. He looked back at Ellen; her face was bright red and she seemed quite anxious.

After looking at Ellen, then at Katy and Gael, Harvey smiled faintly.

He had figured something out.

But before he could dwell on the thoughts, Katy took a deep breath and said, "Thank you all for putting all your strength into my grandfather's condition for the past few days."

"That said, he still hasn't gotten any better. Rather, he's in worse shape than before."

"I'm not blaming anyone for this, but I think the attempts should stop here."

“Go back home and have some rest. The Cobb family will compensate you for your efforts.”

Katy covered her mouth and whispered, “My grandfather’s in the backyard, Sir York. I’ll take you to him right now.”

Harvey looked at the projector before nodding; he followed behind Katy soon after.

“Please wait, Ms. Cobb!”

Gael immediately stepped in front of the two.

The crowd looked over at the sight.

Ellen had an odd look as well; she was glaring at Harvey with a judgmental look, as if she knew that something was up.

Gael smiled.

“I heard you said you were planning to fetch an important person. If I guess correctly, this young man must be him.”

“You just brought him here, yet you’re already dying for him to see Elder Cobb. This isn’t appropriate, is it?”

“He looks like he’s from Country H, too.”

“I know that country has five thousand years worth of history. I know that the people there are quite talented, too.”

“But you of all people should know how your grandfather is doing right now.”

“He’s on his last breath! He cannot accept any more useless treatments!”

“We can’t keep putting in useless effort!”

“If you let this young man treat Elder Cobb, he might just come out in a worse state than before!”

“He might even die because of this!”

“Please listen to me. You need to think this through!”

Gael had a sincere look on his face. Then, he glared disdainfully at Harvey.

“Are you from one of Country H’s sacred martial arts training grounds, or one of the four cornerstones?”

“Maybe you’re from a family of talented martial artists?”

“Tell us! If you don’t, how are we going to know if you have the talent to treat Elder Cobb’s condition?”

Gael came all the way here to treat Dean so he could win the heart of the woman he loved.

Even though Katy was being extremely respectful, she still didn’t ask Gael to save her grandfather. Rather, she got Harvey all the way here to do just that.

Gael was completely infuriated because of this.

Chapter 3829

“Even if he trained since he was in his mother’s womb, there’s no way he’s even better than the rest of us here.”

“I suspect he’s a con artist! Who’s going to take responsibility if anything bad happens after this? Him? Or everyone else?”

The crowd naturally had their own opinions about Harvey.

After all, they all wanted Katy to look at them in a different light. However, they all failed miserably.

Rather, an ordinary-looking young man managed to get Katy’s respect. This was completely unforgivable for Gael.

Ellen was muttering to herself when she looked at Harvey; she didn’t blatantly insult Harvey, but she was clearly on Gael’s side.

Harvey smiled calmly, stopping Katy from saying anything.

He looked at Gael and said, “I’m not from any sacred martial arts training grounds, nor do I have any impressive background.”

“I’m just an ordinary person.”

“What gave you the courage to come here, then?”

“So many medical experts, martial artists, and sorcerers here couldn’t even do anything. Where did you get your courage from?”

Gael instantly cut Harvey off with a righteous look.

“You’re only lying to yourself and the others! This is no better than murder!”

“I know that you’re worried about Elder Cobb, Miss Cobb! That’s why you’re buying everything this conman spouts!”

“But you need to trust me. You can’t just ask for anyone’s help like this!”

“He doesn’t look like he can save anyone at all!”

“He didn’t bring any equipment for him to be considered a doctor, nor does he even look like a martial artist!”

“The situation will turn into one big joke if anything happens to Elder Cobb!”

The crowd nodded in unison.

The doctors who came all brought a lot of people and their precious equipment.

The martial artists here clearly had an extraordinary aura; they were clearly no ordinary people.

A few beautiful-looking doctors and nurses were glaring disdainfully at Harvey, thinking that he was either an ignorant man or a con artist.

Ellen walked beside Harvey and whispered, “Can you do it or not?”

“If you can’t, just tell Katy. We won’t blame you.”

“You’re just a guest, after all!”

Katy frowned; she didn’t think her good friend would say something like this when Gael and the others were already opposing Harvey.

She hesitantly looked at Harvey, afraid that he would get angry.

But when Gael saw what happened, he thought Katy was starting to doubt Harvey’s abilities as well.

At this very moment, Gael felt like he had already won.

He chuckled at Harvey, the sound playful and mocking.

“Listen to me.”

“People should always know their limits!”

“I don’t care how you used to play tricks on other people back in Country H before this.”

“However, you’re standing on the South Sea right now!”

“We’ll never allow such a person to be here!”

People started cheering after hearing Gael’s words.

The beautiful doctors and nurses looked at Gael with admiring gazes.

‘He’s just so handsome!’

Chapter 3830

“I’m no doctor. I don’t come from the sacred martial arts training grounds, either,”
Harvey began calmly.

“But I do know a bit of the art of killing. I can save people using that. Is there a problem?”

“Of course there is!”

Gael scoffed coldly.

“I’m a martial artist as well! Of course I know about that!”

“The problem is, you have to learn everything there is about it!”

“Simply put, you need to be a genius with lots of experience to save someone using that art.”

“If you think you’re actually capable, then show me what you’ve got!”

“If you can’t, then you should stop lying to Miss Cobb. You’re just hindering us from finding a way to treat Elder Cobb!”

“We’ll find a way to make Elder Cobb better using both medicine and martial arts soon enough!”

Gael shot Harvey a challenging look before pointing at the treatment plans that everyone had put together on the table.

“Why don’t we show an idiot like you the South Sea’s flawless treatment plan instead?”

Naturally, to show that he was perfectly capable of leading everyone, Gael decided to trample all over Harvey.

“I don’t think there’s a need for that.”

Harvey didn’t want to be bothered with Gael any longer, but he couldn’t just sit back either when he was constantly provoked.

“If I guess correctly, your so-called treatment plan is to suppress the aura inside Elder Cobb’s body.”

“You’d then perform a series of bloodletting and bone-setting surgeries.”

“Finally, the sorcerers would bring back the last bit of Elder Cobb’s vitality inside him.”

“Am I correct?”

Harvey had a calm look as he detailed the entire plan.

“What?! How did you know that?”

Gael’s expression changed.

He couldn’t figure out how Harvey found out about the plan everyone here had come up with overnight.

He wanted to accuse Harvey of peeking, but Harvey never got close to the workspace where the plans were at.

“Not only that, I can predict what you’re going to do next.”

Harvey took a step forward.

“As long as you can bring Elder Cobb back to consciousness, you’d do whatever you can to cripple him.”

“In truth, you think Elder Cobb is a God of War who’s going berserk.”

“Therefore, your best bet for treating him is to get rid of all his training.”

“Your plan isn’t half bad. It should be enough to save Elder Cobb. If everyone goes well, he might just be back to normal in no time...”

“But! You’re crippling a God of War!”

“You’re torturing him!”

“At this point, I don’t know if you’re acting under someone else’s intentions, or if you’re just a bunch of idiots!”

Gael’s body trembled. His face had completely lost all color; he angrily grabbed his treatment plan, filled with utter disbelief.

“Impossible! This is simply impossible! How did you figure all that out?!”

The doctors, martial artists, and sorcerers were completely shocked as well.

They all opened their mouths to say something, but they couldn't even utter a single word.

Ellen was also surprised by Harvey's words; she didn't think Harvey was actually this impressive.
