

An understated Dominance – Dahlia and Dustin Chapter 1446

An understated Dominance – Dahlia and Dustin Chapter 1446

If they fight alone, they have no confidence, but if they work together to siege, they can definitely win.

“stop!”

At this time, a group of people suddenly walked in at the door of the martial arts hall.

The leader was a tall, white-haired old man.

The old man was wearing a Thompson suit, his face was calm and intimidating, and there was an invisible sense of oppression in his steps.

That is a powerful aura naturally formed by being in a high position for a long time.

At this moment, beside the old man in Thompson suit, there was also a stunning woman who would conquer the country.

The woman’s facial features are exquisite and perfect, her figure is graceful, her temperament is cold and luxurious, and her every move has the look of a queen.

The woman is Natasha who arrived in time!

“Bold! Who are you? How dare you break into the world’s martial arts gym?!” A disciple of the Bryant family shouted angrily.

“Shut up!”

Liam Bryant’s complexion changed drastically, and he slapped the disciple of the Bryant family directly on the face, then turned around, and greeted the old man in the Thompson suit, bowed his hands and said respectfully: “I will greet Duke Duncan at the end!”

“What? Duke Duncan?!”

As soon as this remark came out, the entire audience changed color.

The Bryant family's children, who were extremely arrogant just now, immediately bowed their hands and bowed down, keeping silent like cicadas, looking extremely humble.

As the Duke of the current dynasty, his status is so high and his power is so powerful that he can be said to be under one person and above tens of thousands.

Even if the old man of the Bryant family saw it, he would have to pay their respects.

"This is not the Forbidden City, so you don't need to be polite." Duke said lightly.

"I don't know the Duke is here, what advice do you have?" Liam Bryant asked a little nervously.

Duke has always lived reclusively and never shows up easily.

It's hard to avoid people's imaginations to openly appear here now.

"I don't have any advice. I came here today just to watch the excitement. You should do whatever you want and ignore me." Duke's face was expressionless.

"Watching the fun?"

Liam Bryant's expression froze, and his heart became even more disturbed.

Duke has so many things to do every day and is so busy at ordinary times. How can he have time to come here to watch the fun?

Besides, why would a fight between a few juniors alarm the Duke of the dynasty?

When his eyes turned to Natasha next to him, he suddenly reacted.

I almost forgot that Dustin seemed to be the pretty boy raised by this girl.

Could it be that Duke is here to support Dustin?

Isn't it?

Is it too outrageous for a pretty boy to ask Duke Duncan to take charge?

“Fifth Master Liam, we have agreed to a fight in the ring. Isn’t it appropriate for your Bryant family to bully the minority here?” Natasha said coldly.

“this.....”

Liam Bryant smiled awkwardly and said, “Miss Harmon misunderstood, we were just joking with Dustin.”

“Yeah, yeah, just kidding.” Everyone in the Bryant family nodded in agreement.

Duke Duncan is here, who dares to make a mistake?

“Hmph! It’s best that way.”

Natasha glanced sideways and stopped talking. Instead, she walked up to Dustin and said angrily, “Husband, why didn’t you tell me before you came? What if something happens?”

“It happened suddenly and I forgot about it for a moment.”

Dustin said with a guilty conscience: “Besides, even people like the Bryant family can’t hurt me.”

“That’s what I said, but it would be too irrational for you to take risks alone.” Natasha was a little dissatisfied.

“I promise, it won’t happen next time.” Dustin said seriously.

“That’s pretty much it.”

Natasha immediately showed a smile, then took Dustin’s arm, walked in front of her grandfather, and introduced: “Come, let me introduce you, this is my grandfather, a senior official in Stonia.”

“Junior Dustin has met Duke Duncan.”

Dustin cupped his hands and bent down, bowing deeply to show respect.

“Dustin?”

Duke looked up and down and said meaningfully: “You look familiar. Have we met before?”