

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2672

Married at First Sight Chapter 2672-Liberty said, “How can I let you cook when I’m here? I’ll go over to help. What you cook may not be delicious, but what I cook will definitely be delicious.”

Hayden glanced sideways at Kevin.

Kevin touched Hayden’s nose and said with a smile, “What you make is delicious, too.”

Liberty said, “Then I’ll shamelessly eat. I won’t disturb you anymore. I’ll go downstairs and rest.”

Liberty wisely made room for the young couple to have s*x.

She returned to her room and just sat down on the sofa. Before she could reply to Duncan’s message, she heard a knock on the door.

“Who is it?”

Liberty asked as she stood up and walked to open the door.

It’s a hotel waiter.

When the waiter saw her opening the door, he smiled and said, “Is this Miss Liberty? Someone asked me to bring you a letter.”

With that said, the waiter handed an envelope to Liberty.

Liberty took the envelope and thanked the waiter.

Back in the room, she opened the envelope curiously. There was only a small note inside.

The content of the small note was very simple; it was an address somewhere in Jensburg.

There was another sentence below the address: Miss Hunt, you will go alone; I will ensure your safety; and don’t let anyone find out.

Signature in the lower right corner: Fraser

What?

Fraser?

Liberty didn't remember this given name, but she guessed that it was not a given name but a surname.

People named Fraser...

There seemed to be someone named Fraser next to Kathryn. On the day her All You Can Eat restaurant opened, Kathryn arranged for Mr. Fraser to send her a congratulatory gift.

So Kathryn wanted to see her.

But she couldn't let anyone know.

Liberty looked at the time and then took a box of individually wrapped black masks out of her suitcase right away. She opened the box's lid and took out two black masks, a pair of sunglasses, a wig, and a set of simple, plain old clothes."

After disguising herself, she took her mobile phone and the letter and quietly walked out of the room.

Fortunately, when she arrived in Jensburg, Kevin immediately arranged two cars for her and the bodyguards to use.

The car keys were also handed to her.

She took the elevator and went directly down to the hotel's underground parking lot. Kevin told her that the two cars for her were parked in Area D of the underground parking lot. He also told her what the license plate numbers were.

All she had to do was find a vehicle for her to use.

The underground parking lot was too big, and there were too many vehicles. It took Liberty nearly ten minutes to find one of the cars Kevin had arranged for her to use. Another car was also parked nearby.

She chose to drive the bodyguard car.

It was important to her that no one would notice her, so she kept a low profile.

Kathryn knew she was coming, and Matriarch Farrell must have known it too. Who knew whether Matriarch Farrell would shoot someone behind her back?

It's better to be low-key.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2673-Soon, Liberty drove out of the underground parking lot.

According to the address Mr. Fraser gave her, she navigated there.

Duncan called.

Liberty slowed down the car before answering Duncan's call.

"Duncan, I went out to buy something. I'm driving my car now. I'll be back in a while, and I'll call you again."

Duncan hummed and told her, "Then drive carefully."

"I will."

Liberty didn't like driving like Serenity, who liked racing.

Fortunately, they lived in an urban area with heavy traffic, so Serenity could not drag her car, so she would be honest. If they were in the suburbs, with less traffic, Serenity would drive like an airplane. Zachary didn't see that Serenity drove the car so fast; otherwise, he wouldn't have let Serenity drive.

Duncan didn't want to disturb Liberty, who was driving, so he quickly hung up the phone.

If he knew that Liberty was dressed up and drove alone to see Kathryn without telling anyone, Duncan would be so worried that he would fly over immediately.

Liberty knew how much Duncan cared about her, so she didn't want him to know.

Pedro Fraser provided a very far-off address. The navigation indicated that it would take more than an hour's drive to reach it.

When Liberty drove out of the hotel, Kathryn asked Pedro, "Did you see Liberty come out?"

Pedro said, "I asked someone to bring her a note. She should be able to keep the appointment.

She has just come from Wiltspoon. She is not familiar with the place, and there is no vehicle to use. She will probably take a taxi. Miss, you can just go there. I believe Miss Liberty will go there to keep the appointment."

Pedro had met Liberty and dealt with her. He felt that Liberty was bold and careful. When she came to Jensburg and said that she had nothing to do with the Farrell family, he wouldn't believe it.

Since she was mainly here for the Farrell family, if Kathryn asked her to go out to meet her, she would definitely come out.

"You asked someone to keep an eye on her and protect her secretly. Didn't you see her come out of the hotel?" Kathryn asked.

Pedro replied, “I have arranged for someone to guard the door of the hotel. As long as she comes out, the person will follow her. Don’t worry, Miss. I will call and ask first.”

With that said, Pedro ended the call with Kathryn. Then he called his men.

A few minutes later, he called Kathryn again and replied, “Miss, our people said they did not see Miss Liberty coming out.”

After Kathryn was silent, she said, “Keep staring. I’ll go over there first. Sister Liberty might dress up and go out.”

Liberty was not stupid; on the contrary, she was quite smart. However, her failed marriage made her out of touch with society, as if her wings had been clipped. After the divorce, she reintegrated with society within a year.

She knew the danger and would definitely not go out directly.

Kathryn guessed that Liberty was dressed up, but her people only saw Liberty’s photo. If Liberty was dressed up, she wouldn’t be able to recognize her.

Pedro asked uneasily, “Miss, do you need me to accompany you there?”

“No, I can also dress up.”

Kathryn didn’t let Pedro follow her, nor did she let her bodyguard follow her. She had a bodyguard that Matriarch Farrell assigned to her, but she was more devoted to Matriarch Farrell. If she wanted to see Liberty, she definitely couldn’t bring her bodyguard with her.

