

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2678

Married at First Sight Chapter 2678-Pedro said, "I saw a car driving by. I didn't see clearly who the driver was, so I guessed it was her. She was really wearing makeup."

"She just put on a mask and sunglasses, and then changed her hairstyle." After Kathryn finished speaking, she said to Pedro, "Let them follow Liberty quietly, not to monitor but to get familiar with Liberty's figure. Even if Liberty is dressed, they will be able to tell she is wearing makeup because of their familiarity with her figure."

Every time I ask her out to chat, I must be responsible for her safety. If something happens to her when she goes to my appointment, Serenity and the others can tear me apart.

Also, when Liberty needs help in Jensburg, just help her secretly and don't let mom and her assistant next to her know about it."

Pedro responded respectfully, "I will. Miss, the night is getting darker and darker; go back."

Kathryn sighed. "I really don't want to go back. That home doesn't have the warmth that a home should have. It's full of intrigue, and no one is a good person."

Pedro didn't know how to answer her.

Kathryn didn't want to go back, but she had to go back.

She quickly left with Pedro.

More than an hour later, Liberty returned to the Fortress Hotel. She put on her mask, sunglasses, and wig again and took the elevator directly from the underground parking lot upstairs.

She was reluctant to use the several human skin masks Kathryn gave her.

Such realistic gadgets should be used where they are most needed, so as not to go to waste.

The Fortress Hotel was Kevin's main territory in Jensburg. She put on a little makeup just because she didn't want to alarm Kevin. She didn't want to guard against Kevin, so naturally, she didn't need a human skin mask.

After returning to her room and locking the door, she took out her mobile phone and called Duncan.

Duncan quickly answered her call.

Liberty said, "Mr. Lewis, you're still up so late?"

Duncan said, "I'm waiting for your call. You said you would call me when you got back to the hotel. I've been waiting. If I don't wait for your call, I probably won't be able to sleep tonight."

Liberty smiled. "I just returned to the hotel. I'm going to call you right away. I'm afraid you'll be impatient. I went shopping and bought a lot of things."

Duncan asked, "What did you buy?"

Liberty said, "I bought some food, drinks, and things for Sonny to play with. I also bought him a few new sets of clothes. The weather is getting colder, and he is growing up quickly. Last year's clothes no longer fit him, so I bought him some new sets of clothes."

Liberty lied, not daring to let Duncan know that she ran out alone for several hours just to meet Kathryn, and they only chatted without giving much useful information.

"I also bought myself two coats. We in Wiltspoon feel cold in the morning and evening, so we can wear short sleeves during the day. But in Jensburg, it's more than ten degrees Celsius. I only brought an autumn coat here."

She wouldn't go back to Wiltspoon so soon. The temperature in Jensburg would continue to drop. She needed to buy two thicker coats.

The next day, she would take her time to purchase those items in order to avoid exposing lies upon her return.

Duncan listened to her say that Jensburg was cold and told her, "Purchase two more thick clothes. Don't you check the weather in Jensburg before going out?"

Liberty said, "I was in a hurry to go out, and I was thinking about you, so I neglected to check the weather in Jensburg. I didn't think about it until I got off the plane and felt cold."

Duncan blamed himself: "Liberty, I'm sorry for making you worry."

Married at First Sight Chapter 2679-Liberty said, "Don't think too much about me in the future. I really have never disliked you, just like I was as fat as a pig, and you never disliked me for being fat and ugly."

Duncan said quickly, "You are not ugly, not at all. When you were mellow before, you were not ugly. You look very lucky."

Liberty said, "Ugly is ugly. When I look in the mirror, I hate my chubby self."

It was okay to be stupid once. She wouldn't be stupid a second time. She needed to take better care of herself. She also shouldn't eat so much again.

Before she lost weight, she was so fat that she not only had a fatty liver but also had high uric acid.

After losing weight, uric acid became normal, and the fatty liver improved.

“Liberty, you bought Sonny toys and new clothes, but you didn’t buy anything for me.”

Duncan changed the topic and became jealous of Sonny.

Liberty smiled and said, “You don’t lack anything. Sonny is a child and grows up very fast. He needs to buy new clothes almost every year. Your height has already been determined, and last year’s clothes can still be worn this year. When I go back, I will bring you some specialties from Jensburg.”

Duncan said sourly, “Sonny grew up to be someone else’s husband. In the future, his wife will care about him and take care of him. I am the one who will accompany you until you grow old. You should care about me more. I also want new clothes. As long as you buy it, I like it.”

She rarely gave him gifts. It was she who said she didn’t want to remarry and rejected his feelings before.

Now, she didn’t explicitly say that she would marry him in the future, but she already felt like a lover for him. In everyone’s eyes, they were a couple.

Duncan automatically stepped into the role of her husband. He stayed with her for the rest of her life. Even if she didn’t marry him in the end, he would still be by her side, and they could remain good friends for the rest of their lives.

Duncan really wanted to receive the gift from Liberty. No matter how high or low he was, as long as it was from her, he would like it.

The bouquets she sent before count as visits to the patient when he was a patient.

Zachary and Josh would receive small gifts from their women from time to time. Duncan would be very envious every time he saw those two close friends showing off in front of him.

Now, their women all bought the clothes that these two close friends were wearing.

Josh showed him that even the bottoms and socks were prepared by Jasmine for Josh.

Of the Iron Triangle, Duncan was the most miserable. There was a woman, Liberty, he liked, but he hadn’t married yet, and he rarely got the most thoughtful gifts.

Liberty smiled and said, “I’m just teasing you. If you don’t mind, I’ll buy it for you. Let me make it clear first. The things I buy for you are not as expensive as what you buy yourself. They won't be from big brands. With my current financial resources, I can only afford mid-range products to you.”

Duncan said, “I said, no matter what it is, no matter how high or low it is, as long as it is a gift from you, I like it.

If you give me a handful of grass, I will know how to hide it.”

Liberty said, “When the time comes, I will go to the outskirts of Jensburg to cut a handful of grass and bring it back to you. You have to keep it well after bringing it back all the way.”

At the end of the sentence, Liberty couldn't help laughing.

She lied and didn't want him to worry, but ended up getting herself into trouble and had to give Duncan a gift.

“Okay.”

Duncan also laughed.

Knowing that Liberty would not actually cut a handful of grass and bring it back to him.

Liberty said, “It's very late. You should go to bed early and remember to do rehabilitation tomorrow morning. Auntie said you didn't do rehabilitation today.”

