

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2682

Married at First Sight Chapter 2682-Zachary said, "Yes."

Ben said, "That's good. I'm at the door of your house. I saw your butler coming out to open the door. We'll talk later when we meet."

With that said, Ben hung up the phone.

Zachary had a question mark on his face.

He looked down at Sonny, and Sonny looked up at him.

"Uncle, what's wrong? What happened?" Sonny asked.

Zachary touched his head and said, "There are people like you who get up early in the morning and come here early in the morning."

He didn't know what happened.

Could it be that Remy and Elisa's marriage changed, and then Ben came to him to be a lobbyist?

He couldn't be a lobbyist; only Serenity had that ability.

Soon, Ben drove in the car Remy usually used.

The car stopped in the yard.

Before Ben got out of the car, the door of the back seat was pushed open, and then a strong little figure quickly jumped out of the car and then quickly rushed towards Zachary.

"Sonny, Sonny, I'm coming."

That fast little figure was clearly Titus!

"Titus."

Sonny reacted, immediately shook off Zachary's hand, and trotted towards Titus.

When the two little guys met, they gave each other a strong hug, just like adults.

The last time they saw each other was during the summer break, so it had been a while. The two little guys were a bit taller now.

Titus probably spent a lot of time practicing martial arts every day. He grew faster—half a head taller than Sonny—and he was stronger than Sonny.

With Titus's action of jumping out of the car just now, Zachary's eyes knew that this kid had improved again.

Titus was really good at martial arts.

"Titus, why are you here?" Sonny was very happy to see him and asked

Titus replied, "I came back with my master Carden to see Mama Murphy and my master Carden. Master Carden helped me take a week's leave. Uncle Johnson and Mama Murphy came over to do some errands, so I followed them. Sonny, can I stay with you to play here for two days and then go back?"

Titus gestured as he spoke, stretched out two fingers, and told Sonny that he could play in Wiltspoon for two days.

Sonny said, "I also have a holiday, but I have to go to kindergarten tomorrow."

Titus said, "I always ask for leave. You can also ask for a day off to play with me."

Adults were speechless.

Sonny turned to look at Zachary, who came over and said with a smile, "Don't look at me; tell your aunt when she gets up later."

He was still a kid in kindergarten. He played most of the time in kindergarten. The teacher also taught how to read and write numbers. He could take the day off to hang out with his friends who came from far away.

Sonny said, "I will tell my aunt when she gets up."

Ben got out of the car and walked over.

Zachary greeted him and asked him, "Are you the only one bringing Titus here?"

"Well, Jane has to take care of our two little kids, and they're getting better and better every day. Now they cry when they see Jane go out, so I and Titus only came here."

Zachary said with a smile, "The older you are, the more you can walk and run, and it will be even harder to get rid of two followers."

Ben also laughed, "It's easy to take care of my daughter. I won't have to worry as much. It would be better to have a daughter than a son, who likes to cry and fuss."

Zachary said, "It's your good fortune that you gave birth to a good and trouble-free daughter. Girls from other families are just as prone to crying and making noises."

"Are you going for a run?" Seeing Zachary in sportswear, Ben asked, and then he said sheepishly, "Our Titus, when he arrived in Wiltspoon late last night, he said that he was going to run today. He came to play with Sonny, and as soon as it got light, this kid got up and started clamoring for me to send him here."

Every day, Sonny has a show. Sonny will leave if Titus is late. His trip will be for nothing if Titus is not at home. I couldn't stand him any longer, so I had to send him here first."

Married at First Sight Chapter 2683-Zachary said, "Because two little guys are of the same kind, they can develop into close friends. I was woken up by Sonny's knock on the door and had no choice but to take him out for a run."

Ben, why don't we come together and go for a walk."

Zachary invited Ben and Titus to go out for a walk together.

Ben smiled: "Then let's go; I don't want to sleep anyway."

He said to Titus, "Titus, take Sonny to play in front; don't run too far. It should be said that Sonny took you to play. You are here as guests. Sonny and you must fulfill your friendship as landlords."

The two children had already run away, hand in hand.

Ben said to Zachary, "Titus is familiar with himself and has a very good memory. He can remember the route after coming here once. He can even remember the flowers and plants on the roadside clearly. Now he knows more things than me."

Zachary said, "Don't look at who his master is. His master, Dr. Carden, is well known as a master of medicine and poisoning."

Even though Dr. Carden personally taught Titus very little, with the help of the old miracle doctor, Titus got to know many herbal medicines in his master's herb valley.

They all knew that Titus had a very strong memory.

Zachary said, "Titus has a very good character."

Ben said, "You only saw his good side; you didn't see his domineering side. The boy is extremely dominant. He knew how to eat and sleep when I first picked him up. He wasn't very good at communicating. I assumed he was a foodie who wasn't particularly bright.

I made a mistake."

Ben complained about his adopted son, Titus, but he had a smile on his face and his eyes were full of doting.

Titus was still scared of Ben a little. He was afraid to call him Dad. He kept calling him Uncle Johnson, and Jane was called Mama Murphy. After he found out he wasn't Jane's biological child, he added her surname when he called Mama.

Zachary said to him, "Just have fun; the child is so smart and cute."

Ben chuckled. "It's better if he is more powerful, so he won't have to be bullied in the future. The two of us will be half as powerful as him."

Zachary said, "I have no son, and your son, Enzo, won't be any worse. Don't always dislike your son; others will say that you favor girls over boys."

Ben: "I just prefer girls over boys. In Annenburg, everyone knows this."

Zachary: "You still look arrogant."

Ben laughed loudly. "If your wife gives you a son and a daughter, I guarantee that you will value the daughter more than the son."

Zachary: "If I have a daughter, I'm afraid I won't be able to hold her in my arms, and the elders will rush to take care of her."

Thinking that the York family had not had a daughter for several generations, Ben nodded empathetically and said, "That's right."

The Johnson family was the only one of his generation who had no daughters, and Avah was so in demand, let alone the York family.

Zachary asked, "Come here to do something? Or is it Remy and Elisa's business?"

Ben said, "I'm going to the company for a meeting tomorrow. I came here a day early. I stopped by to see you and have fun here for two days."

"It's business." Ben added authentically.

Ben said, "Remy and Elisa's affairs have been decided. When they get married, they have the final say. Anyway, our family is ready for everything. We are just waiting for their east wind."

I thought you were still at Wildridge Manor. Titus said that he and Sonny had a video call two days ago. Sonny said that you were going to live back in the city. Oh, your wedding leave is over too."

Zachary hummed, "Tomorrow, I will go back to the company to work. Why does it feel like a month goes by so fast? I feel like my wedding just happened yesterday, and my wedding leave is over in the blink of an eye."

Ben said, "Yes, time flies so fast. I feel like I just got married to Jane, and in the blink of an eye, we have two children."

Zachary said as he walked, "You have two children in one go, so there is a difference between you and other people's two children."

The two little guys are running too fast; let's run too."

Zachary said that and started running first.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2684-Ben jogged along. "Fortunately, our two families have close contact and will be relatives in the future. Otherwise, I would be too embarrassed to come and disturb you so early in the morning."

It seemed that the villa area was still quiet, and they could see one or two people jogging in the morning.

Ben said, "Titus doesn't have much time to come back. It's a rare visit. He seizes the time to play with his friends. It's understandable.

Zachary said, "He has made great progress. You can see it from the way he jumped out of the car just now and the speed he ran over. In this regard, Sonny can't even catch up with him."

Ben said, "There are good and bad things about everyone. His weak point is that he talks too much. He really loves food. He likes to follow Lee around and beg Lee to make him lots of tasty food every time he comes back. He ate until he was full, but he still wanted more."

Jane was even afraid that he would burst. Thanks to him practicing martial arts every day and exercising a lot, he didn't become a ball."

Zachary said, "Children are all like this. As long as they grow up, it will be fine. My grandma said that I also loved to eat when I was a child. When I grow up, I don't think I am a foodie."

When Zachary grew up and had self-control, he wouldn't eat unscrupulously.

Ben hummed, "I hope so; otherwise, Titus might be so greedy that he might be tricked into eating."

The two adults and two children ran around the villa area for half an hour before going back.

When they returned to the villa, Serenity had already gotten up and was wandering alone in the yard. When she heard Sonny's laughter, she walked towards the gate of the villa.

"Auntie."

The two little ones running in front of the two adults ran into the villa first. When they saw Serenity, Sonny trotted over.

Titus also followed.

“Auntie Hunt.”

“Titus, you’re here?”

Serenity was surprised to see Titus.

She saw Remy’s car parked in the yard and thought it was Remy coming.

Titus was here; no need to ask; Ben or Jane would also be there.

“Auntie Hunt, I missed you, so I came with my Uncle Johnson to see you.”
Titus said. His mouth was very sweet.

Sonny tilted his head to look at Titus and asked him, “Didn’t you say you missed me?”

Titus said, “I missed Auntie Hunt too; I missed you all.”

Only then did Sonny feel satisfied.

He stepped forward and took Serenity’s hand, raised his head, and said,
“Auntie, I want to tell you something.”

Serenity: “What’s up?”

Seeing that Sonny was sweating profusely from running, Serenity took out a tissue, bent down, and wiped Sonny’s sweat, and then wiped the sweat from Titus’s forehead.

“Auntie, Titus asked for leave. He said he could play with us for two days, but I’m going to kindergarten tomorrow. Can you ask for a day off for me?”

“Ask for leave?” Serenity stood up straight and saw Zachary and Ben coming in together.

Jane was not seen.

Sonny was still saying, “Auntie, I want to take a day off. Titus rarely comes over. I want to play with him for two days.”

He stretched out two fingers and asked to play with Titus for two days.

Sonny: "I told my uncle. My uncle told me to tell my aunt. Auntie, please ask the teacher for a day off for me, okay?"

Serenity said, "I'm only your temporary guardian. You have to tell your mother about this matter. If your mother agrees, I will help you take a day off. But it's just this time, and I won't do it next time."