Married at First Sight Chapter 2695-Mr. Labbe laughed heartily. After he finished laughing, he looked at Carrie and said, "Miss Newman, this may not be up to you. If you agree, that would be the best. If you don't agree, you have to agree, because I'm looking for it's your fault; I can't let you tell me, so I can only silence you.

It will also make your death very painful. Look at my men. There are more than a dozen of them."

Carrie's face turned pale.

"Miss Newman, will you choose to follow me or die? I'll give you a few minutes to think about it."

Carrie looked at the dozen men in black.

Looking at Mr. Labbe again, who was this man?

If he wanted to kill her, he could.

Could he be a murderer?

Carrie suddenly slid down and knelt on the ground.

"Mr. Labbe, please let me go. I don't want to die yet. I'm only twenty years old. I don't want to die."

Her life has just begun.

Mr. Labbe stood up and walked to her, pulled her up, and then hugged her sideways.

Carrie understood what he meant. Her face became even paler, but she did not resist.

She didn't know how long it took, but two people came out.

Carrie's face was full of tears, and her eyes were filled with hatred.

Mr. Labbe hugged her, walked back to the sofa to sit down, and said to her, "Miss Newman, don't blame me. If you want to hate, just hate the people you already hate. It's because of them that I discovered your existence; I think you are a good partner."

He was the one who did the bad things, but Carrie resented Serenity, Camryn, and others.

Mr. Labbe took out a tissue, wiped Carrie's tears, and coaxed, "Okay, stop crying."

As he said that, he took out his wallet again, took out a bank card from the wallet, put it into Carrie's hand, and said, "There are two million in this card to buy you something, and the cash in the bag is there still for you."

Carrie took the bank card, wiped her tears, and asked him, "What do you want me to do?"

Mr. Labbe said, "Approach serenity as a different person. You can't hurt her, or the snake will find out. You need to make friends with her and gain her trust. Also, build a good relationship with Sonny next to her, and make him like you very much."

Carrie listened quietly.

No matter how stupid she was, she knew that she had been targeted by some people and used as a pawn since the day she was released from prison.

These people would treat her as a pawn for one reason: she resented Serenity.

She felt that there were huge invisible nets trying to trap Serenity.

Carrie didn't know who Serenity had offended to attract so many uninvited guests. What's terrible is that these uninvited guests didn't go directly to Serenity but took eighteen turns to find her.

Wanted her to be the one who got beaten.

Mr. Labbe said: "Serenity has a close relationship with Jane, the eldest mistress of the Johnson family, in Annenburg. Titus is Jane's adopted son, and he got along great with Sonny. If you see Titus one day, find a way to kidnap him to come see me.”

After so many twists and turns, Mr. Labbe really came here for Titus.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2696-Carrie asked in confusion: “Since you are going for the adopted son of the eldest mistress of the Johnson family in Annenburg, why don’t you just find someone in Annenburg to help you? Wiltspoon and Annenburg are so far apart, even if Serenity and the eldest young lady of the Johnson family have close contact with each other, and they don’t see each other often.”

Mr. Labbe sighed. “There is nothing we can do about it.”

In Annenburg, no one could get any information about Titus. They knew that Titus was the adopted son of Ben and Jane, but no one outside knew what the child looked like now.

Moreover, Titus was rarely in Annenburg. He wondered where the little guy usually hid.

The Houston family guarded the Johnson family, and the Lafayette family in Meadspring was a marriage relative. Moreover, the fourth young lady of the Johnson family was also a disciple of the miracle doctor. He did not dare to provoke her. Ben had just made a mistake and learned that someone was looking into Titus’s life experience.

After that, they lost the news about Titus.

Mr. Labbe recently discovered that Sonny and Titus had played together. Being roughly the same age, the two were destined to become playmates.

He was good at abducting, and he was thinking of starting with Serenity and trying to find a way to abduct Titus.

He wanted to verify again whether the little guy was the person they had been looking for! Also, where is the totem?

Mr. Labbe said, “Jane is from the Lafayette family in Meadspring. You may not know the Lafayette family in Meadspring. The Lafayette family is powerful. I can’t touch the adopted son of the Lafayette family at will.”

He didn't say that what he was really afraid of were the old guys behind the fourth young lady of the Johnson family, the mysterious outsiders.

He just wanted to kidnap Titus!

If he could avoid a direct conflict, try not to have a direct conflict.

Carrie said, "Do you think Serenity has no backer? She is very selective in making friends. She doesn't look at family background, character, or fate. I hate her so much. I'm afraid that I won't be able to help myself when I see her. How can we become friends if we strangle her to death?"

Apart from her relatives, the only person Serenity could trust 100% was Jasmine.

Carrie thought she couldn't do it.

Mr. Labbe said, "However, you can target Sonny. Even if you can't gain Serenity's 100% trust, as long as you can become friends with her, you can often visit her home, and you will have the opportunity to meet him."

Carrie said, "I remember that Sonny is now three or four years old. He has just entered kindergarten. It's not summer vacation now, and winter vacation hasn't come yet. I'm afraid the two little kids won't get together."

Mr. Labbe hummed, "I know this, so what I said is that our cooperation is not that easy to complete. If it goes well, it will only take a year and a half. If it doesn't go well, it may take ten or eight years.

Even longer, no matter how long it takes, I can afford to wait."

Carrie has now been forced to board Mr. Labbe's pirate ship. She said, "Okay, I will do it. When it is done, remember to fulfill your promise. I want everything in the Newman family, and it belongs to me! I am my parents' most beloved child, and everything should be mine!"

Mr. Labbe said, "In reward, I can give Camryn to you. You can do whatever you want to her."

Carrie said viciously, "One day, haha, I want to see her desperate look; I want to see her kneeling in front of me, begging me to save her, begging me to let her go, haha!"

The two women she hated most were Serenity and Camryn.

If it weren't for them, she would still be the second young lady of the Newman family; her parents wouldn't have gone in; and her life wouldn't have changed drastically and become the mistress of an old man, Mr. Labbe!

Mr. Labbe's revenge was never too late in ten years!

She endured it!

She would wait until the happy day came.
