I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2575-Lufian thought for a moment.

'The red light is wrapped around me so my only option now is to retract the golden body.

Til do this to get rid of the shackles of the red light and then find a way to destroy the egg.'

He refused to believe that a treasure could do anything to him.

After all, he was a Heavenly Overlord and it was not as if the great Almighty himself was the one attacking him now.

Lufian was also unwilling to continue talking nonsense. So, he immediately retracted the golden body.

The immobile golden giant bound by the red light slowly disappeared.

Finally, it disappeared completely.

However, was this as simple as Lufian thought?

Could he get rid of the shackles by retracting the golden body?

If it was that easy, then the great Almighty would not be called the great Almighty.

After Lufian retracted the golden body, Lufian looked at the red light still entwining his hands and feet, penetrating his chest, and in front of his forehead. All of a sudden, he felt a sense of powerlessness in his heart.

He wondered, 'Why?

'What on earth is this?

'I've retracted the golden body so how can it still wrap around my body so seamlessly?'

He was unable to accept this reality.

“Haha! Lufian! You underestimate the great Almighty’s methods. My master left this to save my life and it has unpredictable power. No matter how you change, it will always follow you closely and you will never be able to get rid of it. He is a great Almighty. A Heavenly Overlord like you will never be able to fathom his existence!” Mother of the Robotias sneered.

Lufian was quiet.

If he could not get rid of the red light restraining his body, he would not be able to protect himself, let alone destroy the Robotias.

It seemed that he was at an impasse now.

He had no choice and could only use his last resort.

That was to completely release the violent personality in the body.

Then, his strength would surge.

However, the price of doing so would be to temporarily lose judgment. He would want to tear everything apart. However, Lufian could no longer care about so many things at this moment.

Boom!

The violent gene instantly filled Lufian’s body.

His energy continued to rise and his eyes gradually turned bloody.

His eyes became emotionless and he only wanted to tear apart everything he saw.

Mother realized that something was wrong with Lufian.

The red light in front of Lufian’s forehead quickly plunged into his head.

Just as the red light was about to penetrate, a hand suddenly grabbed and stopped it.

The hand was Lufian’s.

This shocked Mother.

Lufian could not move just now, but now he could.

Not only could he move, but he had also stopped the master's weapon.

How was this possible?

What secret technique did he use?

His energy was much stronger than before too.

Moreover, his temperament was also completely different.

Anyone who could enter Heavenly Overlord Rank was indeed not simple.

If Mother did not have the treasure, it might be doomed today.

Mother was filled with fear.

Who would have thought that there would be a Heavenly Overlord among the five Leila rulers?

If this news had spread earlier, why would Mother attempt to take advantage of Leila?
