I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2577-When Mother saw Lufian stop, its panicked heart temporarily relaxed.

The head was the most important part of all living beings.

Even a Heavenly Overlord would suffer some damage if his head were penetrated.

Plus, the treasure left by the great Almighty was more than met the eye.

After the red ray penetrated Lufian's body, it would release a burst of energy to destroy his body.

Anyone below Overlord Realm would not be able to withstand attacks of such destructive power. They would have died on the spot.

Even if they were an Overlord Realm, they would still suffer.

After all, it was left behind by the great Almighty. To the great Almighty, it was an ordinary thing. However, it was terrifying to an Overlord and all creatures below that.

Lufian's body was already riddled with holes at this time.

Yet, he did not care.

He only had one thing in his mind.

He wanted to break the egg before him and tear the person inside into pieces.

"Lufian! Stop it! Do you really want to die with me? Is it worth it? You have become a Heavenly Overlord and you have a great future. It would be a pity for you to die here. I don't want to die either, so name your request. As long as I can fulfill your request, I will agree to it." Mother relented.

Its voice sounded a little tired too.

Its master was a great Almighty.

Using the treasure left behind by a great Almighty put too much strain on its body.

Of course, the main reason was that it was too weak.

If it was an Overlord, Lufian would not be its match even if he went berserk.

It initially thought that Lufian would stop on hearing what it said.

It was because Lufian was struggling too.

Unexpectedly, Lufian slowly revealed a cold smile.

Mother was shocked inside the egg.

“You must be delusional!”

Saying that, Lufian grabbed the last two red threads in his hands.

Then, he charged toward the egg, completely ignoring his injuries.

“Lufian, what are you doing?”

“Do you want to die?”

“If the fight continues, it won’t benefit anyone. Both sides will be the losers.

“Stop it! You won!”

“I’ve given up, what else do you want?”

“You madman! You are a f*cking lunatic!”

“Get away! Get away from me!”

Mother’s frightened voice kept coming from the egg.

It was terrified of a guy who was so indifferent and so crazy that he was not even afraid of death.

It had never met such a person in its life.

When they invaded those civilizations in the past, they encountered stubborn resistance from various races too.

However, it had never seen someone as strong as Lufian who was also not afraid of death.

Were all human beings so unafraid of death?

Lufian ignored it.

He was getting faster and faster.

The red rays struggled continuously in his hands but he firmly grasped them.

When Mother saw this, it immediately retracted the rays wrapped around Lufian's limbs and began to attack the opponent crazily.

While Lufian was enduring his injuries, he constantly moved towards the egg.

Free from the restraints, he was even faster.

In the blink of an eye, he was in front of the egg.

He let go of all the red rays in his hands and punched the egg.

Smash!

There was a loud bang.

Surprisingly, the egg did not break, only the cracks became larger.

Lufian was also taken aback.

He did not expect the egg to be so hard.
