An Understated Dominance by Marina Chapter 1962

Chapter 1962

"Senior...Senior brother?"

Another man looked dumbfounded when he saw the man in yellow who was pierced by a tree vine.

He stood there in a daze, unable to react for a moment.

Why did the person who was chatting and laughing just now die suddenly?

"Tick...tick...tick..."

The body of the man in yellow was lifted high by the tree vines. The blood in his body continued to spurt out, and then was Tree Vine absorbs quickly.

It can be clearly seen that the dry tree vines have become more plump and shiny after swallowing the blood, and the surface is stained with a light blood color.

While the vines were devouring the blood, the body of the man in yellow began to shrivel up at a speed visible to the naked eye.

In just a few breaths, the man in yellow had completely turned into a mummy!

"Come on... come on! There's a monster!"

Only then did the other man start to yell and run away as if he had just woken up from a dream.

He didn't even care if the knife fell to the ground.

"Whoosh!"

Just as the man turned around to run for his life, another vine sprang out from the ground and penetrated the man's head at lightning speed.

Like a javelin, the tree vine pierced the back of the man's head, passed out of his mouth, and pinned him to the ground.

The man's eyes widened, his face full of horror, and he refused to rest in silence.

If he had known it was so dangerous, he shouldn't have come here to hunt for treasure.

Unfortunately, it's too late to regret.

"Enemy attack!"

Seeing the two Golden Knife Sect disciples being killed, the people around them immediately reacted, took out their weapons, and stood ready.

After draining the blood of the two Golden Knife Sect disciples, Tree Vine seemed not satisfied yet and immediately attacked the other warriors with all his teeth and claws.

There are about a dozen vines, each one as thick as an arm, and they look like the tentacles of an octopus and are very flexible.

"Dare to kill my senior brother? I will destroy you all!"

Seeing his fellow disciples being killed, a burly man became furious and immediately drew his sword to kill it without any fear.

"Die!"

the burly man roared, waving his sword wildly.

A series of sharp blades shot out, cutting the two nearby tree vines into pieces.

The burly man's sword skills were superb, and when he swung them, he was almost airtight.

In addition to attacking, they also take into account their own defense.

Two tree vines were chopped off, and the rest of the tree vines turned around and all attacked the burly man.

Tree vines are fast and have strong attack power, but they are relatively fragile.

If it is a sneak attack, it can exert great power, but if it is a head-on confrontation with a martial arts master, it will be easily cut off.

"Swish, swish, swish..."

The burly man kept swinging his knife and attacking.

A series of white sword lights intertwined into a net in front of him, cutting all the vines that were stabbed into sections.

"Good sword skills!"

Seeing this scene, many people looked surprised and a little more impressed.

The disciples of the Golden Sword Sect are famous in the southwest for their swordsmanship, and the burly man in front of them is obviously the leader of the Golden Sword Sect.

Not only is he powerful, but he also has superb swordsmanship without any flaws.

Fighting steadily all the way, all the trees and vines were cut to pieces, without any damage from beginning to end.

This kind of strength exceeds that of most people present.

No wonder he has the confidence to dare to be the first.

"Death!"

the burly man roared, and the steel knife slashed across, cutting off the last tree vine by the roots.

Finally, he stood up with his knife put away and began to breathe heavily.

He had been attacking fiercely just now. Although he cut off all the vines, it also consumed a lot of energy, and his true energy could not keep up.
