An Understated Dominance by Marina Chapter 1985

Chapter 1985

Everyone was shocked by the sight before them.

White light rising into the sky, a huge whirlpool in the center of the lake, and the shrinking lake water flowing backwards.

All signs indicate that something big has happened.

The people on both sides who were at war with each other before were now all attracted by the strange phenomenon in the lake.

Everyone is secretly looking forward to the treasure appearing.

“Crash!”

The whirlpool in the middle of the lake is spinning faster and faster, and the scope of the ripples continues to spread. The backward lake water pours into the whirlpool and disappears.

In just one stick of incense, most of the entire lake had dried up.

And a palace-like building hidden at the bottom of the lake was finally revealed to everyone.

This palace is very large, all black, covered with moss, with a simple and dark style. It stands there quietly, like a dormant giant beast.

It gives people a huge sense of oppression.

“There is indeed a treasure here! How great!”

After seeing the palace, everyone became excited.

Judging from the size of the palace, the original owner must have been rich or noble, perhaps a relative of a high-ranking emperor in ancient times.

Such a powerful person must have a lot of treasures in his collection.

Enough to be rich enough.

“Buzz~!”

At this time, Dustin’s eyes were shaking more and more intensely.

It can be seen that there must be priceless treasures hidden in this palace.

It’s time for another cup of tea.

The water in the entire lake has completely disappeared, revealing the dark river bed.

At this moment, a huge hole appeared in the middle of the river bed.

Below the cave entrance is a raging underground river.

It was obvious that the water in the lake just now, including the monsters in the lake, were all drawn into the underground river.

Looking around, the entire lake looks like a huge sinkhole.

In this sinkhole, in addition to the black palace standing proudly, there are also many animal bones left.

Some are big and some are small, densely packed, and strangely shaped.

It looks particularly penetrating.

At this time, because of the beam of light rising into the sky.

All forces were attracted, and teams of all kinds began to approach the lake from all directions.

These are treasure hunting teams. Because the light pillar is so conspicuous, anyone who enters the oasis will be alerted.

Some who were close arrived at the scene in advance, while some who were far away were still on their way.

Although I don't know what happened, this kind of phenomenon appeared out of thin air, which makes people curious.

As a result, in just two sticks of incense time, more than a dozen forces were already surrounding the lake.

Among them are expedition teams, Jianghu sects, official forces, and foreign forces.

It can be said that it is diverse and has everything you want.

"Damn it! So many people are here? We're in trouble now!"

Thomas Grey glanced around and became alert.

Their original plan was to persuade Margaret to go down the river together to hunt for treasure.

After the deed is accomplished, look for opportunities to annihilate the other party and seize the treasure for yourself.

But now, with so many competitors suddenly appearing, it is obviously impossible to swallow this treasure.

"Thousand Birds Gate, Shadow Island, Icewind Valley, Xiaoyao Sect... almost all the major forces from the southwest and northwest are here!" Kevin Snow frowned, his face a little solemn.

It is already difficult to deal with multiple Wandering Dragon Sect and Flying Sect.

Now that all the major forces in the southwest, northwest and northwest have gathered together, it will undoubtedly make the entire situation worse.

To get the treasure, you probably have to fight your way through it.

“Miss Margaret, it’s too late for you to regret now. From now on, let’s live and die according to our destiny!” Marcus Ring’s face was a little gloomy.
