

The Wolf's Bride by Coffee's Tea Novel Online Free –

Chapter 901

Kate and the other members of the Medicine Sect were instantly furious. However, the Swallow family experts were all motivated and fought desperately to hold them back, not giving them a chance to save Wade. Fweet... Whistle... At that critical moment, a sudden flute suddenly pierced the air. Then, the already dim space became even darker as thousands of insects swarmed in, blocking out the remaining traces of light. Whoosh! Swoosh! Swish! The insect had a very clear target, all converging on Norvin. "Hmph... How dare mere insects stand in my way?!" Norvin had no choice but to free up his hands to deal with the insects. He avoided them while swinging his palm, causing countless insects to die in an instant. Fortunately, with that delay, Wade managed to stand up and return to the Medicine Sect's side. "Wade Klein!" Norvin was unfazed and dealt with the remaining insects before walking over slowly. "Insects may save you for a moment, but they won't save you for a lifetime. No one will be able to get you out of here alive!" Dense killing intent and the strong smell of blood pervaded, spreading throughout the surroundings. At that moment, Andrius suddenly shouted. "Heads of the three families, did you spend the past twenty years just to serve as the Swallows' stepping stone for this moment?" As soon as he spoke, Damian, Ronald, and Tyrell's eyes widened. They were unwilling to be tools. Their twenty years of effort were going down the drain, and they could only watch as Norvin monopolized the Klein family's treasure. This feeling was even worse than eating excrement! Andrius' words struck their hearts. The expressions of the three families' experts also changed. Seeing their reaction, Andrius knew what they were thinking and continued, "Why don't you think a step further? With Norvin's arrogance, what will happen next if he gets hold of the Klein family's treasure?" Damian, Ronald, and Tyrell's expressions changed again. "Will he divide the treasure equally among you, letting you all advance peacefully and become prosperous together?" Andrius' indifferent words made the family heads' expressions turn cold. What a joke. Expecting Norvin to divide the Klein family's treasure among them was even more ridiculous than hoping that Stephen Hawking would beat Usain Bolt in a race. It was pure nonsense. "Or will he eradicate your three families and dominate the world, enjoying everything alone?" That was the most likely outcome. No, more accurately, it was the only outcome! They knew Norvin too well. Twenty years ago, it was the Swallows that set the rules, stirred up conflicts, and launched a sudden attack to annihilate the Kleins in Kiyoto. They deeply understood Norvin's ambitions and ruthlessness. "So..." Andrius looked at their reactions and calmly continued, "I believe that as long as you're not foolish, you should be able to judge what you should do now..." "Ignorant brat, cease your deceitful words! How dare you try to disrupt the brotherly bonds of the four great families! I'll kill you!" Norvin was immediately furious and seemed to turn into a fierce hawk, pouncing at Andrius and aiming to kill him on the spot. Whoosh! Swoosh! Swish! Three figures approached from three different directions, blocking Norvin's path. It was Damian, Ronald, and Tyrell. "Sorry, Norvin." "Norvin, we can't just stand idly by this time." "Norvin, please calm down. You can't kill Andrius yet!" Facing Norvin's murderous aura, the three of them stood their ground and stared at him coldly

Chapter 902 Andrius sighed in relief when he saw the situation develop to this point. "You..." Norvin's eyes were like blazing suns, bursting with intense hostility. "You really want to oppose my Swallows to the death at this moment?" "It's not that we want to oppose you, Norvin. The Anders are only acting in self-defense." "Norvin, you know what kind of person you are better than we do." "The Fullers just don't want our twenty years of effort to go to waste." The three men had their own viewpoints when faced with Norvin's increasingly fierce demeanor, but they were ultimately the same. It was clear they were unwilling to be pawns and gain nothing. Norvin was extremely displeased. However, the overall situation was not something he could decide alone. With his Martial God strength, he was indeed invincible in one-on-one combat. However, if the four forces united, they could easily massacre the other experts from the Swallows in an instant. At that point, even if he were a Martial God, he would be unable to withstand the combined assault alone. It was even possible that he might fall in battle. Even if he managed to escape alive in the end, he would end up having to say goodbye to the Klein family's treasure. Norvin let out a sigh and said coldly, "Speak. What do you want?" "No matter what, the Anders want one of the jade pendants." "The Fullers must also have one." "The same goes for the Sheppards." The three of them spoke up, each requesting a jade pendant. Norvin's expression changed as thoughts raced in his mind. He did not know what secrets the jade pendants held yet, but he knew that it would take time to find out. As long as the Swallows could eliminate one or two families before they fully understood the jade pendants and secure the pendants from their hands, the situation would be settled! After all, even if the remaining two or three families united, they were no match for him individually. At that thought, Norvin pretended to hesitate before saying coldly, "Since you all have the same idea, then so be it. Our six factions will get one jade pendant each." After saying that, Norvin took one of the pendants first. His greedy eyes glanced at the other pendants, but he eventually restrained himself under everyone's gaze. Damian, Ronald, Tyrell, and Wade each stepped forward to take one jade pendant. Hunter 902

The last one belonged to Andrius. "This jade pendant..." Andrius was secretly surprised as soon as he held the pendant. He suddenly felt that it gave him a sense of familiarity as if he had seen it somewhere before. However, before he could think about it.... Whoosh...

A dark figure suddenly appeared in front of him, and a palm struck his chest. Their speed was so fast that Andrius did not even have time to channel his inner energy. He was sent flying and plummeted toward the deep magma. The jade pendant slipped out of his hands, and the assailant quickly reached out and grabbed it. It was none other than Norvin. "Norvin Swallow, what are you doing?!" "You've gone too far!" "Norvin, how dare you!" Seeing this, the three family heads immediately erupted in anger and questioned Norvin. It was not for Andrius' sake, but for themselves! If they did not clarify the situation, the next person to be attacked and robbed of the jade pendant might be one of them! "What am I doing?" Norvin did not pay attention to their questioning and said sinisterly, Isn't it obvious? "Andrius Moonshade is nothing more than a useless person. He has no qualifications to obtain the Klein family's treasure. "Rather than letting him take the pendant and have it stolen by someone with ill intentions, it's better to let the Swallows benefit. Don't worry, when I return to Kiyoto, I'll erect a monument for him explaining his achievements. "Hahahaha-" Norvin burst into laughter while playing with the jade pendant in his hand. Tyrell, Wade, and the others were infuriated. "Norvin Swallow..." Ronald narrowed his eyes and said coldly, "Are you going to attack us next, so the Swallows can also benefit by taking the jade pendants from us too?" As soon as he said this, Damian, Tyrell, and Wade's expressions changed. Even the experts from the four factions gathered their inner energy in an instant, preparing to attack together. "No, no, no, don't misunderstand." Norvin grinned and said, "I'm not targeting all of you Andrius is my only target. Please don't worry The Swallows have no intention of making enemies out of everyone. "Besides "

Chapter 903

Chapter 903 1/2 "Neither do I have any disputes with your three families nor do I have any disputes with the Medicine Sect. You can't say that my Swallow family is violating the agreement, can you?" Norvin's words were flawless, but his ambition was now clearly exposed. "Norvin Swallow!" Kate yelled furiously, "You're just using that as a cover to eliminate each of the remaining families one by one, then snatch all our jade pendants, but you're still making hollow arguments... "You're despicable! Shameless! Vile! Disgusting!" The insults caused Norvin's expression to darken. As the head of an ancient martial family, he had always been superior. He had never been insulted like this before. “Maiden of the Medicine Sect, you are indeed eloquent.” Norvin had a cold expression and stared intently at Kate. “Aren’t you afraid I’ll get angry and knock out your teeth one by one?” “Don’t you dare!” At his words, Wade snorted coldly. “Norvin, I admit that you’re very strong, but if you want to destroy the Medicine Sect, even the experts from the Swallows won’t survive! “At that time, I don’t believe that the other three family heads will just stand idly by! You must give an explanation for what you just did today!” Wade knew that he was no match for Norvin, but the overall strength of the Medicine Sect was formidable. As he said, even if the Swallows could eliminate the Medicine Sect, they would not emerge unscathed. At that time, it would be the other three great families reaping the benefits. Seeing that conflict was about to escalate, Ronald stepped forward and said, “Wade, it’s useless to say more at this point. In my opinion, it’s better to send someone down to rescue Andrius as soon as possible. There’s a chance that he’s still alive.” “That’s right, Wade. Delaying any further will only put Andrius in more peril.” “Wade, all of us have already obtained our jade pendants. There’s no need to continue bickering here.” The trio’s intentions were clear. With the jade pendants in their possession, they had no intention of opposing the Swallows at this point. “Hmph.” Wade was furious. However, he realized that he had no way of competing with the Swallows if the three major families did not stand together with the Medicine Sect. Getting into a life-and-death struggle was something only left as a last resort. Wade flung his sleeves and led the experts of the Medicine Sect to the edge of the cliff. Whoosh.... 2/2 Splash... Sizzle... Magma continuously bubbled below the cliff. They could feel the scorching heat just by approaching the edge. The experts were all parched in just half a minute. Hiss... An elder of the Medicine Sect enveloped himself in inner energy and tried to descend the cliff to search for Andrius. However, after going down less than fifty meters, he was forced to retreat due to the extremely high temperatures. Even with the protection of inner energy, it was unbearable. For a while, everyone was at a loss. On the high platform, the four family heads looked over and left with their respective people. Damian, Ronald, and Tyrell walked together, guarding against Norvin, the Martial God expert. Norvin glanced at the three of them and led his people away first. Then, the three families slowly left as well. With that, the treasure-hunting expedition of the four great families came to a successful end. Only the Medicine Sect stood on the edge of the cliff for a while. They could not bear it longer and returned to the high platform to ponder their rescue strategy. Whoosh... any Suddenly, a dark figure appeared out of nowhere and landed in front of Kate, striking out with a palm without hesitation. “Insolent!” Seeing this, Wade was furious and immediately flew over from the side to intercept the attack. The dark figure merely struck with a palm without turning around.

Wade channeled his inner energy to fight back. However, the palm seemed as solid as a mountain and instantly sent Wade flying back. The dark figure continued to attack Kate. Bam! Although Kate was outmatched, she managed to block one move but was sent flying by the overwhelming force, falling toward the bottom of the cliff. It was almost identical to the place where Andrius had fallen earlier.

1/2

Chapter 904 Swoosh! Whoosh! Swish! After the dark figure launched a surprise attack on Kate, they swiftly left the scene in several leaps. “Kate!” “My lady!” “Maiden!” Wade and the other Medicine Sect members were shocked when they saw this scene. Whoosh... Although Wade was furious, he retained some rationality and knew that saving her was the priority. He quickly went to the cliffside and eventually landed beneath the cliff where a large boulder had fallen earlier. Then, he took a deep breath, enveloped his whole body in inner energy, and headed toward the location where Kate had fallen. “Sect Master!” “Be careful, Sect Master!” The Medicine Sect members were all in a state of panic, but they did not dare to go down. Swoosh... In less than ten minutes, a figure emerged from below the cliff. The person had disheveled hair and was emitting heat from head to toe, looking extremely wretched. It was none other than Wade, who had just descended. The temperature of the magma below was too high. Even as a late-stage Martial Emperor, he still could not endure it for long. “Hurry!” Wade completely disregarded his appearance at the moment and shouted at the Medicine Sect experts. “Go back and prepare equipment. We must save her as quickly as possible. I need to go down and save her!” Kate was the Maiden of the Medicine Sect and also his only granddaughter! Below the magma, when Kate was knocked down, she immediately gathered her inner energy to envelope her entire body. With her Martial King strength, she miraculously was not burned by the scorching heat upon falling. However, she was shaken by the force of the fall and spat out a mouthful of blood, “Something’s wrong!” She looked around and immediately noticed something strange. She should have fallen into the magma, but what she saw was an entirely new world. It was an open space. The ground emitted a faintly scorching aura, and giant flaming totems could be seen. Several towering pillars rose from the ground, each one carved with unknown mythical beasts. Kate caught her breath and proceeded toward the large hall at the end of the area. When she arrived at the entrance, she was stunned. Standing there motionlessly was none other than Andrius. “Kate, how did you get here too?” Andrius saw Kate at the same time she saw him, and he asked curiously. “Well...” Kate paused before saying, “After Norvin attacked you and you fell into the magma, the four families left. The Medicine Sect stayed behind to search for and rescue you. “Then, a figure suddenly appeared out of nowhere and attacked me, causing me to fall into the magma.” A figure? Andrius could not help but frown. He remembered the incident when the wolf pack had attacked them that night. Someone had dripped blood on the map, leading to subtle changes in the map. It was a disguised hint. It was evident that someone had been following them all along. Now, this person only revealed themselves after everyone had taken the jade pendants. “What did that person look like? Did they have any distinctive features?” Andrius asked. “That person...” Kate recalled for a moment and said, “They were completely shrouded in a black robe and didn’t reveal their true appearance. However, their agility was extraordinary. They even managed to scale walls and rooftops effortlessly. “Their hand...” Claim Bonus For Free Every Day>> Claim Chapter 905 “Although it appeared to be an old person’s hand, it was very strong, indicating that their cultivation is not low. “Their strength was extremely formidable and managed to repel my grandfather with just a casual strike. “Their techniques were agile and elegant like a phantom, making it impossible to predict their moves. “Their eyes... I caught a glimpse when they attacked me. They seemed clear and devoid of hatred or any intent to kill. There was also a faint mole at the starting point of their right eyebrow.” Kate described it in great detail. As she spoke about the person’s attack pattern, especially the mole between the eyebrows, Andrius’ heart suddenly skipped a beat. It sounded more and more like Old Hagstorm! He immediately thought of many things. At the beginning, Registus told him that dealing with the fake emperor was something he had to do. Then, when he had gone to the Swallows’ stronghold and attempted to kill the fake emperor, the Dragon Manor Master and experts suddenly appeared. Afterward, when he was captured by the Swallows’ Seventh Elder and imprisoned, it was the Medicine Sect and the three other families who came to rescue him.

Then, when he was transferred to the Medicine Sect, his granduncle, who was the Medicine Sect Master, complained about someone setting up a scheme that had entangled the Medicine Sect. Now, on the journey to find the Klein family’s treasure, there was also a hand guiding them to this place. Could Old Hagstorm have orchestrated everything all along? What role did he play in this twenty-year-old game? Was he just a pawn in the chessboard or the mastermind behind the scenes? What was his ultimate goal? Andrius fell into thought. “Andrius. Andrius?” Kate did not know that her words sent Andrius’ thoughts far away. She grabbed his arm and shook it. “Huh?” Andrius snapped back to reality and asked, “What’s wrong?” “Do you know who that person is?" Kate blinked her sparkling eyes at him. Andrius shook his head. "No." "Oh..." Kate did not seem to be bothered and asked, "What is this place? You came down here before me. Did you find anything unusual?" "I don't know where we are either. I landed in the open space outside when I fell. There seems to be something strange about the magma layer above," Andrius briefly explained although he was not sure of the specifics. "I think so too." Kate nodded in agreement. Then, she frowned and said, "It's as if the magma layer is partially an illusion, and we passed through it directly. Could it be to conceal the secrets below?" Chap 905 217 Secrets! Andrius raised his brows. "I've explored this large hall several times, but there's nothing else inside besides a strange mural. What kind of secrets could there be?" A mural! Kate suddenly remembered the conversation she had with her grandfather that night. She instantly became excited. She stared at Andrius and asked urgently, "Andrius, did you say there's a mural inside. this hall?" "Yeah, it's over there." Andrius pointed to the wall behind Kate. "Let's go and take a closer look!" The two approached the mural. Kate stopped when she saw the mural from a distance. Her clear eyes suddenly burst with astonishment and excitement. "That's right! That's it!" Kate stared at the mural, unable to look away, and muttered to herself. Claim Bonus For Free Every Day>> Claim