

An Understated Dominance by Marina Vittori Chapter 2010

Chapter 2010

“Oh my god! There are so many gold and silver jewels. Now we are prosperous!”

“Hahaha... God is blessing us... God is really blessing us!”

After seeing the treasures all over the hall, the big man said Some people got excited.

As long as they take all the treasures here out, it will be enough for them to be prosperous for the rest of their lives.

Sure enough, wealth can be found in danger.

Looking at the mountains of gold, silver and jewelry, they suddenly realized that all the suffering and danger they had encountered were worth it.

“Miss Margaret, you decide how you should divide the treasure here.” Shi Hao said with a smile on his face.

“It’s up to you to see it. It doesn’t matter to me how much you can take.”

Margaret glanced around, seeming to be looking for something.

It was obvious that her thoughts were not on the jewelry at all.

“Have you all heard this? Miss Margaret has spoken and asked everyone to take whatever they want!” Shi Hao laughed loudly.

“Thank you, Miss Margaret!” Everyone clasped their fists and saluted.

Then he no longer cared about being polite and started searching the ceremony.

There is simply a lot of treasure, but there will be no looting.

Looking at the entire audience, only Dustin and Margaret did not move.

One is the crown prince of West Lucozia and the other is the princess of the Dragon Kingdom. They are both rich and powerful people, so naturally they don't have much interest in these ordinary jewelry.

The two of them have only one goal, the energy of dragon source.

"Dustin, are the eyes of the sky sensitive?"

Margaret glanced around and found no clues.

"There is a feeling, and it's very strong."

Dustin took out the eyeball from his pocket and showed it in front of Margaret.

It can be seen that the eyes of the sky are filled with light and vibrating continuously.

This is enough to prove that there is some strange treasure hidden nearby.

"Can you feel the specific direction?" Margaret asked tentatively.

"Let me try."

Dustin held the Sky Eye in his hand and began to walk around the hall.

The closer the Sky Eye is to the exotic treasure, the more obvious the reaction will be.

He can use this to determine the approximate location of the treasure.

After walking around for a few times, Dustin finally stopped in front of a mural.

The mural depicts a pattern of people worshiping gods. It blends in with the surrounding scene, and there is nothing unusual about it.

But the closer he got to the mural, the more intense the vibration in the sky eyeball in Dustin's hand became.

The white light emitted also became brighter.

“This is it!”

Dustin suddenly raised his head and said with a sonorous tone: “If you guessed correctly, the treasure is hidden behind this mural!”

“Huh?”

Margaret raised his eyebrows: “You mean there is something else behind this mural.
“

That’s the case so far.”

Dustin nodded.

As long as the sensing of the Sky Eyeball is correct, then everything is inseparable.

“Come here! Destroy this mural!”

Margaret didn’t waste any time. He gave an order and directed his escort to start smashing the wall
