

An Understated Dominance by Marina Vittori Chapter 2035

Night falls quickly. In the hotel, members of Margaret's escort team returned to their rooms to rest early after dinner.

Only two groups of personal guards were left, taking turns patrolling and standing guard, just in case.

During this time in the Death Desert, they were physically and mentally exhausted.

Now that they are finally out, they can finally have a good sleep.

In a room on the second floor.

Dustin happily took a hot bath, then sat on the bed and began to close his eyes to rest and adjust his b o d y.

This mission has been successfully completed.

As for those so-called treasures, he was not interested at all, he only wanted a bottle of spiritual liquid.

He has never drank this kind of thing before, just for a taste.

At his current state, the improvement of spiritual fluid is actually not that big.

What's more, he also has the most precious martial arts treasure, the Heavenly Spirit Pearl, and his cultivation speed can be said to be rapid.

There is not much demand for spiritual liquid or anything like that.

In fact, drinking too much spiritual liquid will put a great burden on the b o d y. In a sense, it will overdraw the b o d y ' s potential in advance.

Although the spiritual liquid can improve one's cultivation level in a short period of time, it can help people break through the realm.

But this kind of unpolished state is very unstable. On the one hand, it is easy to go crazy, and on the other hand, it is weaker than warriors who rely on their own breakthroughs.

Of course, these shortcomings are negligible compared to the benefits of spiritual liquid.

Just improving one's cultivation and extending one's life are enough to drive people crazy.

After all, for many warriors, it is difficult to break through a major realm in their lifetime.

It is simply a dream to be able to break through the realm and improve your cultivation with the help of spiritual liquid.

"Dong, dong, dong..."

Just as Dustin closed his eyes to relax, there was a sudden knock on the door.

Opening the door, he saw Lily Zhang standing outside with a charming smile.

At this moment, she was wearing a silver miniskirt, revealing two long black silk legs. She also had beautiful makeup on her face. She looked very s*xxy and attractive.

No matter in figure or appearance, Lily Zhang has a classy appearance. After dressing up, she looks like a hibiscus, full of temptation.

"Do you have a problem with me?"

Dustin glanced up and down, but his expression did not change at all.

Lily Zhang is beautiful, but compared with the top ten beauties on the rouge list, she is still far behind.

Especially Margaret, who is at the top of the rouge list, even if she does not show her face, she still beats Lily Zhang in terms of attractiveness.

“Senior Brother Dustin, I have something to talk to you. Can I come in and sit for a while?” Lily Zhang said with a smile.

While speaking, she also stroked the black hair beside her ears, her movements were enchanting and charming.

“Sorry, it’s not convenient inside. If you have anything to say, just say it here.” Dustin said calmly.

“Inconvenient?”

Lily Zhang blinked ambiguously: “Is it possible that Senior Brother Dustin is hiding his beauty in the golden house, afraid that others will see it?”
