

An Understated Dominance by Marina Vittori Chapter 2041

After waiting at the door for three minutes, when the effect of the medicine was fully exerted, Caroline Thorne suddenly made a gesture: "Break the door!"

Without any hesitation, Reid Gang kicked open the door and led several masters to kill Dustin first. Go in.

However, halfway through the rush, he was stunned by the situation inside.

Because he found that the entire room was actually empty!

"What's going on? Where's the person?"

Reid Gang's eyes widened and he looked back at Caroline Thorne who followed the door.

Caroline Thorne was also confused, looking left and right, looking around, but saw no trace of Dustin.

"Master Caroline, are we looking for the wrong room?" Reid Gang asked with a frown.

"Impossible!"

Caroline Thorne refused: "I have sent Lily to investigate in advance. Dustin lives in this room."

She has always been cautious, how could she make such a stupid mistake?

"If he lived in this room, why didn't anyone see him? He wouldn't go out to poop at night, right?" Reid Gang said angrily.

Damn, I was on tenterhooks all the way, but when I opened the door, I didn't see any ghosts, and I wasted half a bottle of Knockout Blow Powder.

What a fuck.

"Hey, are you looking for me?"

A cold voice suddenly sounded from behind.

Several people were startled, and when they looked back, they found that at some point, there was another person at the door.

This is their target tonight, Dustin!

“You...why are you behind us?” Caroline Thorne was surprised and confused.

Dustin’s elusiveness made her feel inexplicably uneasy.

“I live next door, and when I heard some noise here, I naturally had to come over and take a look.” Dustin said calmly.

As soon as he said this, Reid Gang’s expression darkened, and he glanced at Caroline Thorne with an idiot look.

Didn’t you say you didn’t get the wrong room?

Grass! He lives next door!

What a pig teammate who succeeds more than fails!

Regarding Dustin’s answer, Caroline Thorne couldn’t help but start to doubt herself.

Could it be that she really made a mistake?

The fact is that Dustin changed rooms early just in case, and now it can be regarded as a mistake.

“What are you doing standing still? Take action!”

Caroline Thorne couldn’t help but let out a soft drink as she was unable to dismount.

Although my judgment was wrong, at this time, I had to bite the bullet.

“Kill!”

The two half-step master-level experts near the door pulled out their swords without any hesitation and slashed towards Dustin.

As the saying goes, strike first to gain strength, strike later and suffer disaster.

Such a close distance and a sudden attack would make it difficult for even a martial arts master to react without any precautions.

“Qiang! Qiang!”

The two men’s knives struck Dustin’s shoulders firmly.

Dustin stood motionless and was not hurt. On the contrary, the two men’s knives were so shocked that they broke on the spot.

“Ah?!”

Looking at the broken knife in their hands, the two of them were dumbfounded.

Their swords were so refined that they could cut iron like clay. However, when they struck Dustin, his skin was not even scratched.

How strong is the opponent’s protective aura?

“I don’t know whether to live or die!”

Dustin snorted coldly, raised his hand and slapped him twice.

“Bang! Bang!”

Just two explosions were heard, and the two of them flew dozens of meters away on the spot, smashed through the walls and windows, and finally fell heavily outside the hotel.

The bones all over his body were broken into pieces, blood spurted from his mouth and nose, and he was dying.
