

The Wolf's Bride by Coffee's Tea Novel

Chapter 1006

Then, she began to undress. There was no hesitation at all when it came to removing the last article of clothing.

With the soft rustling sounds of clothes being shed, Halle stood there, completely naked.

Andrius controlled his gaze, but he still caught a glimpse from his peripheral vision.

The instant Halle took off all her clothes, her entire body seemed to develop a thin layer of frost, making her look like an ice fairy. She emanated an aura of purity that could not be defiled.

Kate also subconsciously looked at Halle. She had to admit that there was a difference between city girls and the girls from Mount Cura.

Kate's body was the more reserved type. Her figure was elegant and seemed to come right out of a painting. Although she had a thin waist, her appearance seemed to pale in comparison with Halle's

Halle was simply a feast for the eyes, especially her figure. She was well-endowed in the important areas and stood proudly. There was a unique charm that was both captivating and breathtaking, yet was also deeply thrilling. She was much more fiery and fascinating than Kate.

As Kate pondered about it, she could not help but think of Luna. She wondered what Andrius' legitimate wife looked like hidden beneath those tightly wrapped clothes. She must be even more perfect!

Kate could not help but blush as she thought about it.

It was Halle's first time being naked in front of others, so she could not hide her embarrassment.

It would have been fine if it was only Andrius, but there was also Kate, with whom she was not very familiar...

Although they were both girls and Kate was in the medical profession, it was still difficult for Halle to conceal her shyness.

Thus, she quickly walked toward the bathtub, wanting to get in as soon as possible so that the medicinal solution would hide her figure.

Andrius saw her move gracefully and was struck dumb.

Seeing Andrius' stunned appearance, Kate urged, "Andrius, you should quickly undress and get into the bathtub."

"Oh... R-right!" Andrius finally came to his senses and replied in embarrassment, then turned his gaze away and started undressing.

Kate turned around.

Andrius quickly stripped. After removing the last article of clothing, he walked into the bathtub and let the medicinal solution ravage and cleanse his body.

"Hiss="

The moment he came into contact with the rich medicinal solution, which constantly exuded an herbal fragrance, Andrius shivered and could not help but tremble.

Once the warm solution penetrated his pores, he instantly felt a fierce heat spreading, quickly soaking the surface of his body and rushing into his meridians.

Bzz...

The next moment, as the intense heat invaded his meridians, it became several times stronger than before. It was like tossing a lit match on gasoline, causing flames to erupt instantly.

The heat from inside and out made Andrius' brows furrow tightly, and he immediately prepared to use inner energy to resist the heat.

Wade seemed to anticipate this. Just as Andrius was about to resist the heat, he said, "The heat you're feeling right now is from the medicinal solution, but don't try to resist it. Join your palms with Ms. Fullberry."

Andrius immediately dispersed his inner energy and joined palms with Halle.

It was rather strange.

In the fiery bathtub, Halle's palms were still icy cold, bringing a sense of refreshing relief to Andrius.

"Kate, now insert the needles into Andrius and Ms. Fullberry one by one. The order is the Baihui point, then the Tanzhong point..."

Kate immediately followed the instructions.

Before long, dozens of silver needles were pierced into their bodies.

Kate reported to Wade, "Grandpa, the needles on their bodies are in place."

"Good. Now is the most critical part. We can't afford any mistakes. Otherwise..." Behind the folding screen, Wade said seriously. "Not only will the previous efforts be in vain, but Ms. Fullberry will also be in mortal danger. The three of you must be careful!"

Chapter 1007

"Yes," the three responded simultaneously.

"Kate, use your inner energy to transfer the frigid energy within Ms. Fullberry's body into Andrius strand by strand. Let him use his inner energy to cultivate it slowly."

Kate was well aware of the dangers of this step. She closed her eyes and concentrated for a moment. When she opened her eyes again, there were no impurities in her gaze.

Then, she placed her hand gently on Halle's back.

A strand of inner energy entered, carrying frigid energy, and slowly moved from Halle's hands. The entire process was very slow and careful.

After half a minute, the frigid energy was transferred from Halle's hands to Andrius' body.

"Hiss-"

The pure frigid energy spread through Andrius' entire arm in an instant, then to his limbs and the rest of his body. The piercing cold made him shiver uncontrollably, and he almost pulled his hand back.

Even with the assistance of the medicinal solution, Andrius still felt as though his very bone marrow was freezing. It was clear how intense this frigid energy was.

It was cold, domineering, and exceptionally fierce.

"Phew." Andrius' hands trembled as he absorbed the frigid energy.

"Andrius, use your technique now and absorb the frigid energy. Otherwise, if you take too long, I'll be harmed by the frigid energy as well. That will make things more troublesome." Kate reminded Andrius. Her voice was shaking.

It was clear that Kate was also affected by the frigid energy.

Andrius had already started to do so even without her words.

Whirr...

The Hades Axiom was indeed amazing.

With just a slight effort, it stripped off the icy exterior of the frigid energy and converted it into the purest inner energy to slowly absorb.

However, although the Hades' Axiom was powerful, Andrius' body was trembling from the extreme cold. His breath fogged, and a layer of frost formed from the pores on his body.

"Phew..."

The long, icy breath that Andrius exhaled was just as freezing.

After the first time, the subsequent strands became easier. They repeated the process over and over again.

Kate carefully transferred strands of the frigid energy from Halle to Andrius, who rapidly absorbed them.

An hour later, the inner energy in Andrius' body had visibly increased. However, it was just the tip of the iceberg for the frigid energy inside Halle's body.

“Ugh...”

Just as Andrius was immersed in the comfort of increasing his inner energy, Kate suddenly made a weak and muffled sound.

Wade immediately asked in concern, “What’s wrong, Kate?”

“Grandpa, the frigid energy is too intense I can’t bear it much longer...”

Even a Martial Emperor like Andrius found it challenging to handle Halle's frigid energy. It was already astounding for Halle, a Martial King, to hold on for this long.

“Well Wade pondered for a moment before instructing. Then you should stop for now. Take a rest and wait until you’ve fully recovered to continue.”

“But it took over an hour to dissolve less than one-tenth of the frigid energy, and I don’t even know how long it’ll take for me to recover. At this rate, we won’t be able to finish before the Ancient Martial

Assembly”

Wade fell silent

His eagerness and efforts were due to the fact that if he could help Halle dissolve the frigid energy in her body and let Andrus absorb it perfectly, the Medicine Sect would gain two martial realm experts. It would give them an advantage in the upcoming Ancient Martial Assembly

Furthermore, Andrus was a Martial Emperor and possessed a unique cultivation technique, making him a hidden gem

However, if they could not finish this in time for the assembly

It would all be in vain.

Chapter 1008

“In fact, there’s another way”

Wade’s voice was low and carried a hint of hesitation.

“What is it?” Andrius and Kate asked at the same time.

“That would be Transferring all the frigid energy in Ms. Fullberry’s body into Andrius at once. This method is much faster, but it comes with a significantly higher risk. Andrius might not be able to withstand the ferocious and brutal frigid energy

At that point, Wade trailed off. He left the choice to Andrius.

In that case “Andrius looked at Halle and Kate

Although Halle did not speak, her brows were tightly knitted, indicating the immense pain she was enduring

Kate’s forehead was also covered in sweat, and her face was pale with signs of exhaustion. It was clear that she was physically and mentally drained after more than an hour of intense concentration.

Andrius continued, “Sect Master Klein, apart from the risk factor for me, will this method affect Halle and Kate?

“The impact on them will be minimal. The main concern is with you,” Wade said pertinently.

“Then, go ahead” Andrius spoke decisively

It was a high-risk gamble!

“Andrius”

“Andrius”

Halle and Kate were both worried and spoke in unison.

“Say no more,” Andrius cut them off “Let’s start

“Alright “Kate clenched her teeth and carefully increased the flow of inner energy in Halle’s body. Then, she began to move all the frigid energy step by step into Andrius’ body.

“Phew”

After that, she was so depleted that she staggered. She would have fallen if she had not caught the edge of the bath in time. She subconsciously looked at Andrius.

“Hiss-

As the powerful frigid energy entered Andrius’ body, he immediately sensed the danger. He was already freezing before he could try to use inner energy to assimilate it. His body was covered in a layer of thin ice from head to toe, and even his dark hair became thick with frost.

Rumble

However, Andrius’ body could not endure such intense cold. Under the burning heat of the medicinal solution and the frigid chill, his blood vessels burst open.

Pitt

The next moment, he spewed out a mouthful of blood, staining the bath a deep red. The pores over his body slowly oozed blood, which rapidly froze on the surface of his skin.

In just a brief second, Andrius transformed into a bloody figure! It was a shocking and terrifying sight.

“Andrius!”

“Andrius, are you okay?”

Halle and Kate were instantly frightened.

“Oh, no!”

Wade heard the women’s exclamations and appeared from behind the screen. He paled when he saw the situation.

“I underestimated the ferocity of the frigid energy. It’s as intense as the inner energy of a Martial God. Andrius is only theoretically a Martial Emperor and can’t withstand it!”

A Martial God!

Upon hearing those words, Kate looked at the bloodied Andrius. Her heart was gripped with fear.

“Sect Master Klein!”

Halle was much better since she was no longer tormented by the frigid energy, but when she saw Andrius in this miserable state, she could not help but plead tearfully, “Please, you must save him!”

Wade’s expression changed rapidly, and he suddenly thought of a method. Then, he narrowed his eyes and said, “There’s only one method left that might save Andrius.”

“What is it?” Halle asked urgently. “Sect Master Klein, please tell me. I won’t refuse if it’s something I can do!”

“Merging yin and yang...” Wade looked at Halle while saying the words, then explained, “In simpler terms, copulation.”

Chapter 1009

“Copulation?”

Halle was stunned at the words. She glanced at Andrius and blushed. Although she had seduced Andrius several times in the past, she always maintained her modesty. However, given the circumstances and the presence of two onlookers, she could not help but feel a bit shy.

“Yes.” Wade explained quickly, “Your constitution is more unique and better suited to withstand the explosive frigid energy in Andrius’ body. Thus, you need to do it with Andrius. During the process, let Andrius continuously exchange the frigid energy between you two until he successfully refines all the energy.”

“No problem!” Halle agreed decisively. “Sect Master Klein, is there anything specific I should be aware of? If there’s nothing, I’d like to start now.”

Andrius’ condition was deteriorating rapidly. They could not afford any delays.

“Well...” Wade took out a bottle and handed it to Halle. “After Kate and I leave, you can feed this to Andrius.”

Halle took the bottle, looked at the words on the label, and instantly flushed.

“Kate, let’s go.”

Wade was the first to leave the room.

Kate glanced at Andrius, then at Halle. An inexplicable emotion flashed in her face, but she finally left without saying a word, closing the door behind her.

Only Andrius and Halle were left in the room.

Halle took out the pill and blushed harder. Then, she shyly glanced at Andrius and helped him ingest the pill. Her hand trembled continuously throughout the process.

Wade was indeed the head of the Medicine Sect.

The moment Andrius took the pill, his eyes immediately opened, but they were bloodshot.

The next second, he pounced on Halle.

The day gradually passed, and the sky was painted red. The rosy glow streamed through the window and shone on the bed.

Andrius woke up slowly, finding the sunlight piercing.

“Hm?”

The next moment, he suddenly remembered what happened.

He had suffered a backlash from the frigid energy, resulting in his blood vessels bursting. He lost consciousness before he could even react.

However, now...

He felt comfortable, and his inner energy was abundant.

What happened?

Just the blood on the bed was particularly striking.

Andrius suddenly realized what had happened. He had been intimate with Halle!

What a sin!

Luna had just given herself to him less than ten days ago, but now..

It was completely unforeseen.

Andrius did not know whether to laugh or cry. Their relationship was completely messed up!

He smiled wryly and sighed, then got dressed and walked out. He had to face the consequences.

Swoosh...

The moment he opened the door, a sharp palm strike struck him.

Bam!

Andrius instinctively struck back.

Although it was a reflexive move, the surging palm force was released and easily pushed his opponent back several steps.

Andrius looked over calmly.

It was Wade.

Wade looked at Andrius with a complicated gaze and sighed. "The frigid energy is indeed terrifying. The boundless medicinal power inside actually helped you advance to the early stage of Martial God. It's amazing!"

Early stage of Martial God!

Andrius' eyes could not help but light up.

Norvin was at this level too. From now onward, even when facing the head of the Swallow family, who was once the strongest, Andrius no longer had to fear him.

He felt eager to put his strength to the test.

Chapter 1010

He could not contain the restlessness in his heart anymore and wanted to seek revenge against Norvin.

"Sect Master Klein..." Andrius calmed down a little and asked, "Where's Halle?"

Since the incident already occurred, he had to take responsibility as a man. "She's in the adjacent room." Wade said honestly, "Kate is providing acupuncture treatment for her. She should be fully recovered by tomorrow."

"Then..." Andrius asked, "What about Luna? Is she okay?"

He felt a bit guilty as he asked the question. His treatment with Halle most likely could not be hidden from Luna. He wondered what she thought about it....

"She's in the room next door." Wade pointed to another side and had a meaningful smile on his face, then said, "However, she has locked herself in. Neither Kate nor I can get her to open the door."

Well...

Andrius instantly felt like his worst fears had come true. Luna was clearly upset.

After all...

No matter who experienced this incident, it would be difficult for anyone to remain calm no matter if woman. Luna was already a role model among women for not crying or causing a scene.

Andrius sighed, steeled himself, and headed to Luna's room.

"Men have it tough..." Wade watched Andrius' back and suddenly let out a sigh.

Knock, knock, knock-

"Luna, it's Andrius." Andrius knocked on the door.

However, Luna did not answer. She did not respond even after three knocks.

Click....

Andrius decided to open the unlocked door.

Luna was sitting at the head of the bed. Her eyes were red and swollen, and her tears were still wet on her face as her frail shoulders trembled. She was still deep in sorrow.

When Luna saw Andrius come in, she immediately turned her head away and choked out, "What do you want?"

Andrius knew he was in the wrong and hesitated. "Luna, I..."

"If you're here to explain, you can leave now." Luna interrupted his words in a cold voice "I don't want to see you right now. I just want to be alone."

"Then..."

"Get out!" Luna once again interrupted him. Then, she stood up and pushed him out of the door, slamming it in his face with a loud bang.

Andrius saw how angry she was and stood at the door helplessly

After a moment, he sighed and returned to the living room to sit down and meditate He would wait for Luna to come out to explain to her again.

Night fell, and the bright moon rose. It shone brilliantly with a slight chill in the air.

Gradually, it was already past ten at night.

Creak...

Halle walked out of her room. She saw Andrius in the living room and hesitated for a moment before walking over.

"Andrius..." She wanted to call him her husband, but her identity did not allow it, so she addressed him by his name. "I'm sorry, I..."

"The one who should apologize is me." Andrius shook his head and smiled wryly. "If I didn't insist on absorbing all the frigid energy in one go, all this wouldn't have happened."

Halle fell silent. She looked at the man quietly.

He was still as rugged and handsome as ever. He was open-hearted and never shied away from taking responsibility.

However, there was still Luna between them.

"I..." After a moment, Halle also smiled wryly. "What's happened has happened. There's no point in regretting it. However, from a personal perspective, I don't regret it."
